

Defender of the Universe by art1stic
Chapter 11

The Lions launch out toward their respective quadrants. Allura warns them that the only way the component could stay hidden this long is with a virus of some type. The Lions then begin scanning the area for the missing component.