Snoop Dogg & Voltron FanFiction Story-Part One

Snoop Dogg Meets Prince Lotor From Voltron
Part One

Farewell Yall

It was a dreary day for Prince Lotor on his spacecraft as he was heading back to Planet Doom after being defeated by Voltron & being by Princess Allura after making another attempt to propose to her again. Prince Lotor was in his rages, crushed the wine glass in his hands, and tellin all his soldiers to leave him alone. Haggar even came in the cockpit to check on him & he yelled, "Go away old witch!!!!" Lotor was in his worse state of mind. Hurt, heartbroken, & mad at the world around him. Nothing ever seemed to go right with him & he hated his life. There was nothing in it for him & he hoped he would just one day disappear from his world only to never return back to it. He wasn't looking forward to going back to Planet Doom for he was fearing the wrath to come from his Father, King Zarkon when he would kneel down from the steps of his throne to explain another failure to him. His obsession with Princess Allura got to him to the point where he had difficulty taking her constant rejections. He was hurt & in pain all over, because he loved her so much & she just refused his luv over & over again. His jaw was sore where she had slapped him after he attempted to take her onto his ship. Prince Lotor was also tired of being humiliated by her co-pilot boys from the Voltron force; especially Commander Keith. Prince Lotor never felt at his lowest point. He got up from his bed after surprisingly sobbing his eyes out & went to Haggar upon there arrival on Planet Doom & said, "Haggar, I'm ready to fly from here?" Haggar asks, "Where to my young Prince?" He says, "Anywhere, but here, Planet Arus, Pollux, or other planets in this galaxy known to Voltron or my Father. I'm sick of my life & had enuff of it Haggar! I want something else out of my life before it's over!"(He cries)

Haggar-(Gives him a motherly hug) "It's okay my Prince. I may be the evil right hand of u'r Father, but I do want u to be happy, unless u decide to turn good & help Voltron just for Allura.

Prince Lotor- "It's not about Allura anymore. Right now, I'm tryin really hard to just hate her for a change & leave her alone, so I will not be hurt anymore by anyone. I'm even sick of conquering planets for my Father & doin his evil dirty work!"

Haggar- "How do u propose to explain this to u'r Father?"

Prince Lotor- "Just please go in the throne room & tell him that I'm sorry I failed him again! I just want to go to my chambers & be alone right now. I'll speak with him in the morning."

Haggar is in the throne room explaining Lotor's situation to King Zarkon.

Haggar- "He's not feeling well at all Sire & not himself. I've never seen him so sad since I've known him. That damn Allura has got him so broken down to the point where I feel like sendin Queen Merla over there to break her down."

King Zarkon- "Why does that matter? That brainless fool has failed me again & I won't stand for it. Does that nitwit ever take a hint that he can't have his precious Princess? When he gets here in the morning, I shall personally have him punished."

Morning comes on Planet Doom & Prince Lotor arises from his bed. His servants packs up each & everyone of his belongings & loads them onto his ship. A female slave from Arus comes from no where into Prince Lotor's chambers.

Female Servant-(Looks at Prince Lotor eyeing all his belongings) "I know it's not my business, but where u goin, Sire? U've practically packed up everything in u'r room. I hope u don't mind."

Prince Lotor-(Winced) "I'm taking a vacation. A very long vacation. Just in case u wanna somehow spread word to the Voltron Force & Planet Arus, u tell them that they don't have to worry about me ever again. I will no longer take pain & hurt from doin my Father's work."

Female Servant- " Huhhhhhh! What's u talkin about?"

Prince Lotor- "I want freedom; whatever u'r name is. I've never had any time for myself & see other aspects of life. In retrospect, I'm leaving for good & am taking my harem of females with me. If there are any from Arus, I will be kind enough to drop them off on Planet Arus."

Female Servant- "U'r sure in rare form. I'm not always use to seeing u this way. Did all them rejections from Princess Allura finally get thru to u?"

Prince Lotor- "I still do luv Ally. She will always be my heart. While I'm gone, "I definitely fear for her safety, cuz she might possibly fall into the hands of my Father. I'm not going to be here to save her life when Commander Keith isn't able to. A part of me sort of hates her though, cuz of all the affection I've tried showing her & puttin myself in harm's way for her only for her to give me this type of payback."

Female Servant- "So u'r doin all this, because Princess Allura turned u down?!"

Prince Lotor- "Well, that, but most of all my Father who has put me on the front line to do his dirty work so he could make me a laughin stock here on Planet Doom & the Voltron Force. Princess Allura doesn't want me, cuz I come from an atmosphere of evil & she thinks that's all I will be. She's like, "U'r just like u'r father!" Like you, whether u realize it or not, but just like u, "I'm a slave to my Father just like u!"

Female Servant- "I'm sorry u'v had to live that way, sire. That's deep."

Prince Lotor- "I'm sneakin on out of here, cuz I don't want my Father to know. (Motions to her) U'r comin with me, so I can drop u off on Planet Arus, before I'm gone for good.

Prince Lotor has left Planet Doom & arrived at Planet Arus.

Koran- "Our radar is sensing a ship comin here from Planet Doom."

Commander Keith- "It's Lotor, Does the creep ever give up? Wait a minute. I have a page coming in on the monitor."

Koran- (Clicks on Monitor) "Castle Of Lions, Come in."

(Monitor comes on & it's the female servant)

Female Servant- Koran, I'm a slave

Commander Keith- Hey maam are u okay in there.

Female Servant- We're fine & not being harmed. Lotor is here to drop me along with many other slaves from Planet Doom.

Commander Keith- This has got to be one of his tricks. Don't u trust him, cuz he has tendency to not keep his promises.

Female Servant- This is no trick, Keith. This is for real.

Keith- Oh yeah!

Prince Lotor shows up on the monitor.

Prince Lotor- She's right Keith. This is no trick. I'm not here to fight or attack. I'm here to simply drop off some slaves that I rescued from my Father & am goin on a long journey. I did a lot of thinkin last night & decided that doin my Father's dirty work isn't for me. I want freedom & now have it, but u must not let my Father know.

Lance- What's the catch?

Prince Lotor- There is no catch. I'm doin this for myself. I've been thru enough pain. I'm out to find a life of my own instead of someone else's. U don't have to worry about me hurting u ever. Same for u Allura. U have hurt me enough & u never have to worry about me bothering u again.

Hunk- Well, so u have finally taken the hint.

Koran- Hunk, let him speak.

Princess Allura- Hmmm. (Breathes a sense of relief)

Prince Lotor- Allura, I'll always luv & have affection for u like I've always have, but out of luv for u, I've decided to leave so I won't have to bother u. I will leave u alone for good as I don't want to force u to do anything u do not wish to do.

Female Servant-(Interrupts Lotor) Lotor, do u care if I go on u'r journey with u?

Prince Lotor- (Turns over to servant) I'll be gone all the time?

Female Servant- I don't care. I have no life myself & wish to explore & accompany u on u'r journey.

Koran- (To Keith) He's obviously tellin the truth, cuz it's not like a slave to ask Lotor if they may accompany them.

Prince Lotor- I will let u know that u won't me seeing much of me whatsoever. However, there will be times I return here to visit Queen Merla & run errands, so if u are in space & see my ship, don't assume I will attack, cuz I'm only passin thru. I wish & bid u all farewell. Good luck in triumphin over my Father, cuz I'd like to see what he has comin to him.

Princess Allura- We wish u a safe journey & luck in findin u'r special purpose Lotor.

Prince Lotor- I luv u sweetie & please be careful out there with Blue Lion. I will think about u. Farewell.

(Monitor Fades & Prince Lotor is gone)

Lance- I can't believe what's just happened!

Commander Keith- I don't know. I wouldn't be celebrating yet.

Koran- We shall inform the Alliance & Planet Pollux of Lotor's departure from the system.

The End Of Part One- To Be Continued in Part Two.
