

Voltron/Snoop Dogg Crossover Story by Princess Iris
Chapter 10: Unsuccessful Attempts

This part begins with Largo & his armada battling the Vehicle Voltron Force.

Largo- (Notices Voltron) Now what is Vehicle Voltron doin here tryin to mess up my plans.

Commander Jeff- We thought we'd give u a little surprise .

Cossack- Damn, that other Voltron Force. Both of them. Fire lazer rockets!

King Zarkon pops up on the monitor.

King Zarkon- Largo what's all the racket out there. Jarius & the robeast are battling Voltron out in space.

Largo- I don't know. I was sittin here & all of a sudden Hazar, along with the Vehicle Voltron force had just showed up!

King Zarkon- (Scratches neck) Why would they come over here? I have the feeling about this & all this doesn't seem right.

Haggar- Somebody has to be behind all of this if both Commander Hazar & the Vehicle Voltron force show up unexpectedly like this. I have to release a robeast for Vehicle Voltron to deal with. In fact, I will unleash 3 robeasts all at the same time. (Cackles)

King Zarkon- Good plan. That will teach trespassers the reason why this planet is called Doom!

Back at Lotor's ship, Lotor, Merla, Hazar, & Dorma are making their way to the Goodie chest.

Merla- (Whispers) Hazar, Dorma it's this way. Now we must remain quiet, so we're not heard.

Hazar- I never knew this place was like a maze.

Prince Lotor-(Uses laser gun to shoot down robots) That'll show u tin heads to stand in my way. Here we are. Merry Christmas Mr. Pimpin (Unlocks & opens the door)

Dorma- (Eyes open wide with excitement) Woooo! Look at all the money, gold, jewels, & treasure.

Prince Lotor- Well, Dorma, it's all gonna be ours & go back to the people it came from.

Hazar- Great retort Sire. (Puts thumbs up)

Prince Lotor- Now to take all of this back to the ship!!!!

All 4 of them take the treasure back to the ship. Voltron then destroys one robeast, but is being attacked by the others. Meanwhile back in space, Jarius has lost to the Lion Voltron Force.

Commander Keith- We showed u again Jarius!!!

Prince Jarius- I guess it's just another one of those days, but this time it's not over.

King Zarkon- (Appears on the Comm. screen) Jarius, I wouldn't worry about Voltron right now. We have a bigger problem here at the Castle. Pleaz quickly make it back. We need u.

Prince Jarius- I'm on my way Uncle.

Outside Planet Doom, the Lion Voltron Force are slowly headed back toward Arus until Lance picks up some vibes.

Keith- Well it looks like we've sent Jarius back home empty-handed again.

Hunk- It was a close one again. He almost had us.

Keith- Dealing with Jarius hasn't been cake at all for us.

Princess Allura- Jarius has practically got us worn out. I hope we can pull thru & defeat him & Zarkon.

Pidge- Lotor wasn't even 1/2 as bad as he was.

Hunk- U got that right. Our dealings with Lotor were rather easy. It never took us long to defeat him, plus he didn't have surprises like Jarius be throwin at us.

Pidge- I mean releasing a fleet then having a robeast attack us from behind. That took some brains.

Keith- Never doubt ourselves, cuz with Voltron, Doom will always be gettin sent back to Doom.

Princess Allura- Lance, u seem rather quiet.

Lance- Team, I don't know.

Princess Allura- What's wrong?

Lance- I have the funny feeling about something.

Keith- What's that?

Lance- I have the feeling that we shouldn't head home just yet. Something tells me that we should follow Jarius back to Planet Doom.

Pidge- Are u crazy? I don't think that would be a great idea Lance.

Princess Allura- Yeah, & besides it wouldn't be wise for us to follow Jarius. It will give him a reason to do more destruction. It would make him really mad.

Keith- No, I think Lance is right Princess. For some reason, I noticed his ship speeding away awefully fast when he got defeated.

Pidge- He sure did. He didn't even give his Speech of Defeat when he left us.

Lance- I'd say let's go over to Doom & drop in on Zarkon to see what tricks he has up his sleeve.

Princess Allura- Ya know, I'm with u on that ordeal.

Keith- Let's go team.

Snoop Dogg, Lamora, & his family are inside Lotor's ship hiding in their chambers.

Shante- I'd never thought I'd have to hide like this. We should've stayed back home.

Snoop Dogg- Baby, it's okay. Once he gets himself, his friends, & the slaves onto the ship, we be out of this muthafucka.

Shante- Do u realize what kind of place this is? I'm getting so many horrible instincts about it, that the visions coming to my mind are so pitiful to look at. I'd hate to step one foot outside this ship just to see the horror that happens here.

Snoop Dogg- I'm sure not steppin outta here. U don't have to worry about that, but if our friends don't get back here soon with that treasure, somebody eventually is gonna find us.

Lamora- Shh, I just heard the door open.

Prince Lotor- Hey guys, it's us. We successfully cleaned the treasure chest out.

Dorma- We've cleaned them out to the point where they won't have the dough to make it off this planet.

Hazar- We've pretty much weakened Doom's forces this way.

Prince Lotor- Now let's go quickly to the slave quarters. (Opens up valuable closet & puts his recovered assets in it) I don't think Vehicle Voltron can hold off for us much longer.

Queen Merla- I'm rather worried about them. I had noticed on the way back to the ship, that Jarius quickly returned back after Lion Voltron defeated him. Plus, Voltron is battling 3 robeasts.

Prince Lotor- Then we have to move very fast.

Vehicle Voltron is battling 3 robeasts & is struggling to defeat them until Lion Voltron pops up out of no where to assist them.

Wolo- Jeff, I never thought we would be holding off so many robeasts at the same time.

Lisa- I tell u. Zarkon really knows how to deal with trespassers.

Cindra- Cliff, one robeast has a hold of us.

Cliff- Are u all okay? (Gets hit by lazer blasters) Ahhhhh!

The whole team is screamin & being pinned to the ground by the three robeasts until Lion Voltron shows up to rip blazing sword through all 3 of them.

Commander Jeff- Team, gettin out of this isn't goin to be so easy. (Blazing Sword slashes thru the robeast & Vehicle Voltron is free) What was that?

Commander Keith- Hey, it's me fellow Voltron Commander.

Shannon- Hey, it's the other Voltron force!

Ginger- Thank gosh they came when they did. We were almost food being fed to Haggar's monsters.

Princess Allura- Anytime Vehicle Team.

Back in Jarius' ship, Jarius watches on as the 3 robeasts were just defeated.

Prince Jarius- Oh, so they think they've won the battle with having 2 Voltrons. Wait till they get a hold of what I can do. The Vehicle force doesn't know who Prince Jarius the Great is. (laughs) Team, fire cannon missiles!!!!

Commander Keith- Move out of the way team!!!

King Zarkon- This can't be happening! 2 Voltrons! How did the Lion Team manage to sneak up on us.

Keith- It was brains Zarkon.

Prince Jarius- Well, u don't have the brains to deal with me. Fire missile beams!! I want the both of them destroyed. With the both of them demolished into useful Doom metal, we won't have to worry about either Voltron force gettin in our way.

Back in the Slave Quarter area, Lotor, Hazar, & Dorma are covered up with veils pretending to be slaves.

At the slave quarters, Lotor, Hazar, & Dorma are covered up in veils pretending to be slaves.

Slave (Coy)- Cossack says we must have more slave quarters built.

Slave (Jacob)- I wonder why. Whatever it is, I hope to one day get out of this place.

Coy- Will that ever be possible? We're trapped! What way do we have off this dismal planet?

Jacob- There's got to be some way, but I'm feeling tired & worn from working day & night.

Coy- I hate to say, but I'm afraid there's no hope here. We die here either by exhaustion or get beheaded by Jarius' sword.

Jacob- My back is too sore from where Cossack flogged me with his whip.

Drule Soldier- (To Lotor) Slave, u must work faster.

Lotor keeps pickin at the tools & ignoring him.

Drule Soldier- (Kicks Lotor in the shins) Do u hear me scoundrel?

Prince Lotor- I know u'r speakin, but I'm not listening.

Drule Soldier- (Whips Lotor with whip) U will listen to me fool! That's by order. If u refuse to cooperate, then I'm afraid, u will have to suffer the consequences.

Hazar- I'm afraid, there won't be no consequences. (Takes off veil & starts firing at soldiers)

Prince Lotor & Dorma throw off their veils & start shooting)

Slave (Billy)- It's Prince Lotor! What's he doin here?

Prince Lotor- Shhhh! Nobody must not know I'm here, except for yall. If so, our plans will be doomed.

Hazar- Now slaves, u must listen to us if u wish to be free from this treaturous place.

Coy- What is this?

Hazar- We must retreat to the forest without being caught. Lotor u & Dorma lead the way, while

I bring up the rear.

(More robot soldiers charge toward them)

Prince Lotor- Fire lazer guns! Slaves, u must find an object u can use as a weapon for defense. Don't be afraid to fight & stand up to my Father's forces.

Slaves (Virgil)- Is this a dream? I never thought we'd be saved by Zarkon's son.

Prince Lotor- Well, u are & I promise u. This is no trick.

Soldier- None of u will get away with this.

Dorma- Oh yeah. (Shoots lazer gun blowing away the soldiers)

In Largo's, chambers, a robot calls on the Comm. device.

Largo- Both Voltrons have destroyed the robeasts, but Jarius has a lock on them.

Commander Jeff- Keith, I'm afraid we're losing power.

Prince Jarius- (Laughs) How do u like that Voltron force?

Robot- Largo, Jarius come in pleaz.

Largo- We don't have time tin-head. Can't u see were trying to destroy Voltron?

Robot- No we have bigger problem. Prince Lotor is freeing the slaves.

Largo- What? What's that numbskull doin back here.

Soldier- I don't know. We were torturing the slaves & all of a sudden he & a couple other Drules just pop up out of no where.

Largo- Capture them! I want them bought to King Zarkon. He would like to take care of Lotor personally.

Soldier- We need forces down here right away. The slaves are revolting & we do not have enuff to hold them down.

Largo- I shall come down there & take care of Princey myself.

Back at the Voltrons, both robots have wiped out Jarious' fleet, but are low on power.

Keith- Team, we're low on power.

Jeff- Us too, Let's retreat to the forest.

Back in the forest at Lotor's spaceship, Snoop Dog is packing a lazer gun & fixing to leave the ship.

Shante- What do u think u'r doin Cal? U'r not leaving to go save our friends. Don't u remember Lotor saying how dangerous this place is?

Snoop Dogg- I don't care. My homey saved me a bunch of times, so I owe him one. Plus, I can't let anything happen to them.

Lamora- She's right, Snoop. What if u don't make it back.

Queen Merla- U must remain in the ship, Snoop. U have wife & kids who are counting on u.

Shante- Besides if anything was to happen to u, how would we have to explain that to all u'r fans back on Earth?

Snoop Dogg- Look baby, that will not happen. I've been thru these situations before & know what I'm doin.

Queen Merla- But this isn't the mean streets of L.A. U'r on Planet Doom where there are many aggressive creatures. It's different here & u I'm afraid are not trained to battle any Doomites in combat.

Snoop Dogg- Well, we see about that. (Walks toward door)

Queen Merla & Lamora restrain him

Snoop Dogg- Hey, lemme go!

Lamora- We will not let u get yourself killed.

Snoop Dogg- (Frees himself from Merla & Lamora's restraint & runs out the door)

Shante- Honey, come back here. Then be that way, cuz I'm following right behind u.

Prince Lotor, Hazar, & Dorma have been captured by Largo & his soldiers. They are tied up against posts waiting for Zarkon to retrieve them.

Largo- So u think, u can just show up on u'r Father's planet, soundrel. (Laughs) Won't be long & u'r friends won't be seeing the light of day.

Behind some bushes, Snoop Dogg & Shante have just noticed the capture.

Shante- Oh no, they've got em.

Snoop Dogg- Not for long.

Shante- (Tugs on Snoop's jacket) No wait a minute.

Snoop Dogg- (Walks on & zaps Largo)

Largo- Ahhhh!

King Zarkon- (Walks in & zaps Snoop with his scepter) So intruder, u think u'r a great enuff fighter to free u'r friends?

Snoop Dogg- Ahhhh! Damn, that hurts.

King Zarkon- Guards take him to the Pit of Skulls. That's what he gets for intruding on my planet only to interfere with my affairs.

Snoop Dogg- Oh shit. The Pit Of Skulls. I've heard too much about that place. Will my homeys back on Planet Earth ever see me again?

Guard- I'm afraid not boy. (Laughs) Prince Jarius will personally deal with u.

The guards haul Snoop away to the Pit Of Skulls.

Shante- Oh no. They've got my husband too. I must go get help.

Prince Jarius-(Brings sword out to Shante as she attempts to run toward ship) Not so fast lady. Now I will take u with me to the Pit Of Skulls so u may bid u'r husband a last farewell. After that, u will make a perfect slave for me.

King Zarkon- Take these two troublemakers to the arena. They'll make perfect robeast bait. As for u my traitorous son. (Guards strike him several times with whip) That's what u get for defying me & all the crimes u've committed against my Empire.

Prince Lotor- U won't get away with this father. (Shakes head & looks at Zarkon with disgust))

King Zarkon- Guards take him to the dungeon. I'll have Haggard deal with him

In the forests, both Voltron forces are visiting each other & exchanging gossip. Most all Commander Keith is questioning Commander Jeff about what he was doing on Planet Doom. They embark on a mission impossible that they never expected as Queen Merla's vulture flies into deliver the Voltron force the news.

Rocky- I guess this is the time to rest.

Lance- I just hope no one sees us over here.

Wolo- Zarkon's forces know were still in the area & could be coming after us any minute.

Commander Keith- Hey, if u don't mind us asking? What are yall doin over here anyway? Coming over here like this is like purposely flying into a meteor shower.

Commander Jeff- We're here with Hazar & Dorma to assist King Zarkon's son, Prince Lotor in recovering treasure & freeing slaves, along with escorting him to his Mother's home planet.

Cliff- Yeah, Lotor stated to us that Merla had found some information about his Mother's heritage. He wishes to discover that & is therefore on a long journey to Planet Aden.

Lance- U've got be crazy to help him. For all I know, he could be leading u into a trap.

Ginger- I understand what u'r saying Lance, but from what I've seen of Prince Lotor lately, he doesn't seem interested in rejoining forces with his father or conquests which involve conquering planets & other evil missions.

Commander Keith- U can't believe him. He's done too many horrible things.

Rocky- That was because his Father used him to carry on his missions & he therefore had no way out. It was obey the King or suffer the ultimate fate.

Cindra- U haven't obviously seen the side to Lotor that we've seen.

Keith- Oh yeah, but I know him more than u do.

Commander Jeff- Look, the man has been tight with Snoop Dogg & been shacking up in his ship having had spent a large amount of his Father's funds on material items. The Alliance says he no longer poses a threat.

Keith- But he could trickin us, Jeff. Before u know, he could just be leading us all into a trap for Haggar.

Pidge- (Looks up & sees Merla's vulture flying & squawking) Hey, it's Queen Merla's vulture. Now Keith, I hate to bail, but I'm agreeing with Jeff. Merla said so.

Lisa- I don't like how that bird is screeching so long, but it must be a distress signal.

Jeff- That must mean, Hazar & Lotor are in trouble.

(The Vulture flies down on Jeff's car.)

Vulture- And yes, they're in deep trouble. Zarkon has captured all of them.

Cliff- Oh no. We have to go rescue them.

Vulture- Lotor's in grave danger & is being held in the throne dungeon. So are Hazar & Dorma. Zarkon will be feeding them to robeasts in the robeast games. Not only that & even worse. Prince Jarius has got Snoop Dogg & his wife & is fixing to throw Snoop into the Pit Of Skulls.

Chip- What about Merla & the others.

Vulture- They're safe in the ship for now & guarding what Lotor has recovered, but I don't know for how much long. Largo has guards searching everywhere for others.

Jeff- Then we better act quickly. Now Keith, I understand that u have bones to pick with Lotor, but I'm gonna help him & his crew escape.

Hutch- Count me in, Jeff.

Hunk- Now that I think about it, I'm going too.

Keith- I don't think so Hunk. I'm Commander of the Lion Force & that's an order. However, I will go rescue Snoop Dogg & his wife from the Pit Of Skulls.

Lance- U got that right. I wonder how he can possibly bear Lotor much longer. If Snoop hadn't hooked up with the tyrant, he wouldn't be in this position.

Keith- We must rescue him & his family & immediately transport him back to Planet Earth, so he'll be safe from Zarkon, Lotor, & Jarius' wrath.
