

Voltron/Snoop Dogg Crossover Story by Princess Iris
Chapter 11: Escape From Doom

Escape From Planet Doom

This part begins the Voltron plotting tactics to help the prisoners escape from Planet Doom's wrath held onto him.

Jeff- Okay, the Air Team will attempt to rescue Lotor. Land Team, u deal with Hazar & Dorma. Sea Team, u'r job will be to simply guard Lotor's ship to ensure that Snoop's kids, Lamora, & Merla aren't harmed & from Zarkon's treasure being discovered hidden.

Shannon- Great plan Captain.

Keith- Our job will be to rescue Snoop from the Pit Of Skulls.

Snoop Dogg is lying on a barren ground of an open plateau & circled by Dommite robots. Prince Jarius is putting Snoop thru practical torture.

Prince Jarius- Stand back guards & fellow nobles. (Looks down at Snoop) I want u to witness & see what happens to those who intrude on our premises only to cause us havoc. In additon, abetting a known criminal to the empire.

Snoop Dogg- Look, I didn't do anything. Why u punishing me?

Prince Jarius- (Kicks Snoop in the Snoop & whips him several times, while laughing) I'm getting some enjoyment out of this.

Shante- (On the ground chained up by guards) Punk. If only I could get out of these chains & skin u alive. Pleaz don't hurt my husband. I'll do anything. Just pleaz don't.

Prince Jarius- (Grabs Shante by her neck & slaps her across her cheek causing it to bleed) Look, woman, u will shut that hole in u'r face. Shut up! Shut up!

Shante- (Spits on Jarius) I will speak when I pleaz. I don't have to obey u u despicable beast.

Snoop Dogg- U betta get u'r hands off my wife muthafucka.

Prince Jarius- Silence or else!!! Me & u'r wife will have a nice time once I'm thru with u.

Shante- I'll never have a nice time with u.

Prince Jarius- Oh yes u will, cuz u'r now my slave who will serve me day & night. As for u'r precious husband here. He won't be around to rescue u.

Shante cries as Prince Jarius begins to to unleash the ground beneath Snoop & drop him into the Pit Of Skulls.

Prince Jarius- Okay, braidy man, time to meet u'r doom. (Laughs)

Snoop Dogg- (Talks to himself) Oh no. this is it. Out of all the worst situations I've been in; court cases, drive-by shootings, & gang bangin, I've never experienced something this horrible.

Prince Jarius- And this will be u'r last boy.

Snoop Dogg- (The pit opens & Snoop falls in) Good-bye Rap game, family, homeys, & wonderful life. Lord, pleaz take care of my family. (Screams as he falls down to the bottom)

Shante- (Has hands over her eyes bursting into tears with her head propped down) No!!! (Cries)

Prince Jarius- No use crying anymore my lady, cuz u are now mine. My treasure & prize for the keeping.

Captain Keith- Not so fast Jarius.

Prince Jarius- What are u doin here?

Captain Keith- Let her go & I mean it. U'r time's runnin out tough guy.

Prince Jarius-My time never runs out Captain. Guards seize them all!

Guards begin attacking the LV force with their swords,while they get out their lazer guns. Keith is in a duo match with Jarius. Cossack & some robots come out from behind & zap Keith with stun gun. The rest of the LV force is all down for the count.

Cossack- My, my my. Well look what we have here.

Prince Jarius- Yes. We have 4 useless pilots to deliver to Zarkon & a Princess. Today's my luckiest day ever. I have a wonderful pheasant to be my mistress & most of all Princess Allura to be my bride.

Pidge- U won't get away with this Jarius.

Prince Jarius- Cossack, pleaz escort these pilots

King Zarkon & his fellow nobles along with Haggar are celebrating their victorious captures. Prince Lotor watches from behind bars while being taunted by them.

King Zarkon- Tomorrow is gonna be a big day here on Planet Doom. In fact, this is my most victorious day in all my glory. Voltron is now too weak to accomplish this mission.

Fellow Noble- I can't wait till tomorrow my King.

Prince Jarius- (Walks into the throne room & evilly smirks at his cousin when he passes by) So how do u like being caged up cousin. (Grins)

Prince Lotor- U'r gonna wish u'v never stepped foot in this galaxy. (Soldier shoots stun gun at him) Ahhhh!!!

Prince Jarius- Looks like u'r son is having a great time in there Uncle. One thing I've enjoyed about his capture is watching him suffer.

King Zarkon- Of course. Unlike the pretty boy I captured, he's now a tormented, battered prisoner who will be living his last days in pain & torture. That's what he gets for defying & betraying his beloved Father. This will be his life before I have him executed at the end of all the festivities tomorrow.

Prince Jarius- Well, I have some gifts to deliver u that u'v been desperately waiting for u'r highness.

King Zarkon- Oh, I'm delighted to see what u'v bought.

Cossack- (Walks in with the LV force & Snoop's wife) 4 pilots, a Princess, & still his captured mistress. May the fun begin?

King Zarkon- (Laughs) Well done my nephew. I'm dearly proud of u. Now u see my beloved son. This is how the job should've been done.

Prince Lotor looks at Zarkon with disgust.

Prince Jarius- Uncle, what will we do with our Space Explorers. As for Princess Allura,

King Zarkon- Yes my dear nephew, she'll be your's.

Prince Jarius- Oh yes she will be. Won't u my pretty? Me & u will be getting married tomorrow.

King Zarkon- U hear that? My neph shall wed Princess Allura tomorrow at the festivities. It's just too bad Lotor, that u now can't have her.

Prince Lotor- When I get out of here cousin, I'll kill both u & my Father.

Haggar- No, I'm afraid u won't be getting out Lotor. However, we will grant u the priviledge of seeing u'r beautiful, beloved Princess whom u'v always wanted to be with get married to u'r cousin.

Prince Lotor- No, this can't be!

Prince Jarius- I'm afraid so cousin. She's mine now & it seems to me that she takes more to me than she ever did u.

Princess Allura- I will never wed u u monster. I'd much rather wed Lotor than u anyday.

Prince Jarius- (Slaps Allura & grabs wrist) Now I shall give my new fiancée her engagement ring. I shall ask u to marry me my sweet.

Keith- Darn, u touch her Jarius, then I'll be helping Lotor with killing u.

Shante- (looks down) This is by far the worst day in my life. I've never seen Lotor in such bad shape, but most of all, I just pray my husband isn't dead.

Prince Jarius- (Looks over at Shante) Oh & I haven't forgotten about u my dear. U'll be my girl on the side. Guards pleaz take my beloved Princess Allura & mistress, Shante into my chambers.

Down at the bottom of the Pit Of Skulls, Snoop Dogg is laying practically lifeless & all of a sudden turns on the ground.

Snoop Dogg- (awakes after a hard fall) Where am I? I have the feeling this isn't Los Angeles anymore. Oh shit, where the fuck am I? (Looks around) Damn, this is the most creepiest place I've ever woke up in. It's so dark & dreary down here. I just pray this isn't hell.

Queen Of Doom's spirit appears to Snoop Dogg.

Queen Altor- My angel, u'r now safe & sound.

Snoop Dogg- (Screams) Who goes there? Is anybody here? Whoever it is, pleaz help me. I'm so sore that I can barely move. Damn, this ground is cold.

Queen Altor- Come to me my dear. (Reaches out hand)

Snoop Dogg- (A bright light & image of Queen Altor appears in front of his eyes) Damn, that light is bright. Who are u?

Queen Altor- I am the ghost of Queen Altor, the late Queen Of Doom, & mother of Prince Lotor. I have come to help u in time of trouble. U've been thrown down here & my son is in great danger. U were brave to accompany my son on his mission.

Snoop Dogg- Of course, but u'r son is locked up. Do u know of anyway I can get out of here. I have to rescue my wife & my friends. Nonetheless, I'm practically fearing for my kids. This planet is like hell. I so badly wanna get out of here, to this Planet Aden, & safely back home in L.A. This place has made me so homesick.

Queen Altora- I understand. U was however meant to accompany my son on his mission to Aden. U'r first thing to do right now is get out of here & that is something I shall assist u with. Once u'r free, u must quickly retreat to Lotor's ship.

Snoop Dogg- But my wife is with that prick ass Prince. Who knows what he's doin to her? I'm so worried about him hurtin her.

Queen Altora- Snoop, my beloved son's lad & brother, I'm a ghost who roams this planet. I see all & know all that goes on on this dismal planet. It's nuthin but pain & chaos.

Snoop Dogg- Oh, I've seen that already & experienced what comes with it.

Queen Altora- After all, I was murdered by my husband, King Zarkon & his witch Haggar right in his chambers when my son, Prince Lotor was one day getting treated for a wound by his nurse. He came back & noticed me gone from the chambers where me & my son stayed, only for Haggar & King Zarkon to walk upon him & tell him I had left him.

Snoop Dogg- Damn, them muthafuckas did that kid so wrong lyin to him like that. I'd like to kill that prick ass King.

Queen Altora- I can't tell u everything, cuz I wish for my son to discover it all during his time on Planet Aden.

Look, I will see that someone succeeds at rescuing both my son & u'r wife along with others he has captured. None of the Vehicle Voltron Force has been captured, I assure u that right now that u'r people will be alright & will be rescued. But right now, u must follow me down this corridor.

Snoop Dogg- I shall follow u u'r majesty. Ya know, Lottie boy has one time told me about a time when he dropped this one Princess down here & she managed to escape with some Voltron force dude.

Queen Altora- Well, I'll be taking u down the same path.

In the arena dungeons, the LV force, along with Hazar & Dorma await there fate.

Keith- I hate to imagine what that creep Jarius is doin to our Princess.

Pidge- It makes me sick to my stomach to see him marrying her.

Lance- I'd hate to say, but she's be much better off marrying that creep, Lotor than Jarius.

Hazar- Did somebody say Lotor?

Lance- Yep, that was us. Is there a problem?

Hazar- Oh yeah, Prince Lotor happens to be my adopted brother. We've known each other since childhood. (Offers Lance a handshake)

Lance- (Accepts handshake) My name is Lance & I pilot the Red Lion on Lion Voltron.

Dorma- Great to meet u. I'm Hazar's sister, Dorma. I'm Prince Lotor's adopted sister.

Hunk- I just want to get outta here. I hate to know what will await us tomorrow.

Dorma- Zarkon will be using all of us as robeast bait in his robeast games.

Keith- He also talked about a wedding involving our Princess & Jarius. It just makes me hurt just to think about what he will do to the Princess. I'm so worried about her.

Dorma- I'm more worried about Lotor. Zarkon, Largo, a bunch of soldiers spent all of last night beating, whipping, & torturing him.

Hazar- We have to get out of here.

Pidge- But how?

Cliff- (Him & rest of the Land Team shoot prison officers down with their lazer guns) That's how.

Dorma- Oh thank gosh, u guys showed up. The keys are on the floor.

Hutch- (Picks up keys & unlocks the dungeon door) Shh, be quiet. We don't want them hearing us escape.

(Cliff starts leading them down a secret passageway that leads back toward the Lions)

Keith- Hey wait where we goin?

Cindra- We're taking u to the Lions.

Keith- U guys go. I have to go rescue the Princess.

Hazar- And I have to rescue Lotor.

Cliff- No need to worry about that. Commander Jeff & the rest of the Air Team is working on that.

Pidge- And Snoop Dogg. He's stuck in the Pit Of Skulls. We have to make sure he's alive.

Lance- Let's worry about that when we make it back to the Lions.

Keith- No, I'm gonna go rescue the Princess. She's means a lot to me. I can't bear the thought of leaving her here with that creep.

Hazar- Keith, u must come with us. It's much too dangerous to attempt her rescue by yourself.

Keith- Hazar, I've accomplished even more dangerous rescue missions alone. If I was able to rescue her from that witch planet of Haggar's, then I can rescue her from Jarius' chambers. I'll meet up with the Air Team force.

Cliff- Okay, whatever u say.

In Prince Jarius' chambers, Princess Allura & Shante are chained to Prince Jarius' bed.

Shante- Finally, were away from that creep for one moment.

Princess Allura- (Looks Around) Me too. I certainly recognize this room. This must have been Lotor's old chambers. Jarius sure has expensive taste like Lotor's, but on the other hand, Jarius' presents this room with a more depressing atmosphere. I hate all the creepy nooks he has in this room.

Shante- There are too many demonic figurines & pictures in here. U must be the lovely Princess Allura that I've so much heard about.

Princess Allura- It sure doesn't take even a mule to guess who has spoken to u so much about me. So was I pretty much Lotor's main topic of discussion during his time visiting with u on Planet Earth?

Shante- Well, I have to admit that u be on his mind all the time. Oh & by the way, my name is Shante. I'm Snoop Dogg's wife. I was rather freaked out & distrustful of Prince Lotor when I first met him, but after a while, I came around pretty well.

Princess Allura- Well, not too many people trust & like Lotor in this galaxy. My co-Lion pilots just despise him so bad. Especially Captain Keith.

Shante- I was pretty much forbidding my husband to have Lotor as a friend, plus allowing him to camp out in his ship in our backyard, but after a while, Allura, he turned out to be a man me & my family have grown to luv & admire. My kids just adore & luv having him around.

Princess Allura- I never thought of him that way. I remember him as being a bully to kids. However, after his many times of chasing me & kidnapping attempts, I at first hated him so bad that I wished he were dead. Then at the end, I began to realize that he has genuine feelings for me. I never thought a person like him would in turn save & rescue me from being harmed. He's afterall, a Dark Prince & son of the evil King Zarkon.

Shante- Ya know Allura. I know u hate to hear me say this, but I must tell u the truth.

Princess Allura- Truth about what?

Shante- Well. (Pauses) Prince Lotor really does like u. He just doesn't like u. He luvs & cares about u very much. I one day heard Lotor confide to my husband about how much feelings he has for u. He wants to not only be with u just out of luv, but to comfort, protect, do what's best for u, & do anything u want. Lotor wants u to be happy & so badly wants to make that happen. He was so sincere about it too.

Princess Allura- I never thought he'd feel that way, but however, I'll be honest with u.

Shante- What? Spit it out Princess!

Princess Allura- I have a thing goin on with Captain Keith & developed feelings for him over the course of our close friendship. Keith has been my knight wearing shining armour. He was that when he first came to the Castle from Planet Earth to bring back Voltron. On the other hand, I will have to say, but u must keep it a secret.

Shante- Oh, whatever u tell me doesn't leave this room.

Princess Allura- After being in action with him & getting a feel for him, I've also begun to develop genuine feelings for Lotor. My gosh. He's amazingly gorgeous & a lot of times hard to resist refusing. I've eluded him so many times telling him I hated his gutz, but that was cuz, he was an evil tyrant with so much beauty whom I couldn't be with. My Father, King Alfor would be turnin in his coffin if he seen me making luv to his killer's son. Me & Lotor though share a lot of qualities I notice. He's a strong-willed & very determined man who doesn't let anything stand in his way. At the same time, he's a lot like Keith being my protector, hero, & looking out for me. I just hope that Lotor is finally done with his evil ways.

Shante- I've heard Lotor tell me a lot about Keith.

Princess Allura- I'd like to hear what it was about? Probably the issue that him & Keith feud with the most. Me.

Shante- No no no. That's a permanent no. He spoke highly of Keith. He said he has hopes that they will one day put their feuds behind them & make peace. Lotor wants to be friends with Keith. Them two would make a great team, cuz they both posess the qualities of natural-born leaders.

Princess Allura- That was a great informative speech. I luv the both of them & am reminded now of Lotor's luv when he put himself in harm's way so many times just to rescue me. Ya know, I so badly want to take it upon myself to save him right now.

Shante- Him & my husband.

Princess Allura- First of all. Let's make an escape plan, then we shall go rescue our dear, Prince. (Cheddar & Cheezy come out of her shirt) Oh, am I glad u guys are in my shirt.

Space Mice- Squeaks & nods.

Shante- (Smirks) Girl, u have pet mice?

Princess Allura- They're space mice. I've had them ever since I was a little girl. They've been there for me in a lot of situations. They'll be assisting us with our escape & rescue of Lotor. I have a little job for u my little friends. (Mice Squeak) See the guard right by the throne dungeon door, pleaz get his keys & undo the chains on Lotor. Then give him the keys & stay with him. He will come down here to get us. At least his sword is the only thing that can cut thru these chains. Now act quick, cuz Jarius could come back any moment.

Prince Lotor is in the dungeon chained up & lookin like he's on his last leg.

Prince Lotor- Uuuuh! I'm so hurtin. I've never been in so much bodily pain. I mise well just die here.

Queen Altor- (Appears to Lotor) Lotor, u are destined to live.

Prince Lotor- Mother. Am I dead or alive? Where have u been Mother? Father says u left me when I was a little boy & wanted nuthin to do with me.

Queen Altor- That's not true my son. How could I do such a thing. I luv u so much. U were my pride & joy. I never left u. U'r Father & Haggar had both lied to u. The truth is that Haggar & Zarkon had both poisoned me in my sleep, while the nurse had been tending to u'r care. I had died in my sleep.

Prince Lotor- No, this can't be. However, I've had feelings about this all along that they did something to u just to get u out of my life. My Father wanted me to be his instrument best known as object of evil. Why didn't u appear to me a lot sooner Mother? I've missed u & so much needed u'r luv.

Queen Altor- Haggar's magic somehow has kept spirits from appearing on this Planet as a means of preventing escape. However, I've tried to reach u so many times in u'r dreams & during u'r missions on Arus, but u kept mistaking me for that girl u got u'r eye on.

Prince Lotor- (Blushes & smiles) Yeah, that chick. I'll always be head over heels for her, Mom. She's pretty just like u. I just wish I didn't have to live the way I did & turn out committing the evil crimes involved with carrying out my Father's mission. Everybody in this galaxy hates me, including the girl I so much wish to be my true luv.

Queen Altor- U may have done many bad deeds as a result of u'r Father's methods of raising u. It's hurt me to look down from heaven & watch all the torment u've been thru. I only wish I could've done a better job shielding u from becoming like u'r father. From serving him, u've gotten to see how he is & how he works. U then left Planet Doom & redeemed yourself. And u know what, u may have people out there not willing to trust u Lotor, but u also now have many friends & people who luv & admire u.

Prince Lotor- Will I ever get out of here?

Queen Altor- Yes, u'll be outta here any minute, cuz as of now, some little critters are attempting u'r rescue.

Prince Lotor- (Smiles & laughs) I wonder who those critters may be. At least Haggar's cat can't get to them.

Queen Altor- I must go now & meet with u when u arrive on Aden. I'll bring u up more details & help u get established.

Prince Lotor- Thank u Mother.

In the throne dungeon, Prince Lotor is feeling relieved after meeting with his mother.

Prince Lotor- Well, I do know that if I die, I'll get to join my Mother in heaven. God, should allow me to cross the pearly gates since I gave myself to Jesus while I was back on Planet Earth. (He hears & notices keys moving along the floor of the cell)

Space Mice- (Squeaks & squeals)

Prince Lotor- Hey, it's mice, but where did they come from?

Space mice crawl on him to undo his chains.

Prince Lotor- Hey! Oh wait a minute, thank u guys for coming to my rescue. Hmm, them mice look rather familiar.

Space mice start nodding & squeaking.

Prince Lotor- (Eyes open & jaw drops in shock) What's goin on? Hey, u mice belong to Princess Allura. It can't be. Did she actually send u guys down here?

Cheezy- Smiles & squeaks.

Prince Lotor- I don't understand u guys' language, but stay down in my shirt, until I get out of here. Where's my sword. The guard has it & my lazer gun, but not for long. (Kicks rubble & picks up a rock hurling it at the guard's head out the window knocking him out) Yes. I got him. (Unlocks himself out of the cell & heads toward Jarius' chambers)

Down the hall, Prince Jarius returns to his chambers to check on both Allura & Shante.

Prince Jarius- There are my beauties. I had to check on u to make sure u'r in line. I've been gettin ready for our big wedding tomorrow my Princess. One thing I'm gonna do first is have my first up close moment with u.

Princess Allura- Never!!

Prince Jarius- Oh yes u will. (Picks her up & throws her on his bed) I now get my chance to have my way with u. It's only appropriate for the groom to do so with the bride.

Princess Allura- Jarius, u don't see the bride until the wedding.

Prince Jarius- (Slaps Allura) So u think u know everything woman? (Starts tearing into the shirt of her jumpshirt & touching her breast)

Princess Allura- Stop!! Pleaz leave me alone.

Prince Jarius- Fuck u. U'r gonna be my wife & will submit to me.

Shante- Leave her alone Jarius!

Prince Jarius- Silence whore!! (Kicks Shante to the floor)

Prince Lotor- (Uses sword to open door) I hear u in there cousin. And it looks like u won't be goin to have u'r way I'm afraid.

Keith walks up on him.

Keith- Lotor, what are u doin. I thought u were locked up.

Prince Lotor- Oh, u scared me Keith. I was locked up, but then Allura's mice came in the cell to get me out.

Keith- What? But why would she want to send her mice to rescue u.

Prince Lotor- The mice are safe in my shirt, but right now, we need to bust in here & save both Allura & Shante. Jarius is pretty much in their having his way with him.

Keith- Well, Lotor, me & u may have our feuds & hate each other's gutz, but this calls for our teamwork.

(Prince Lotor & Keith both bust door open after Lotor unlocks door with his sword & notice Jarius caressing Allura who has been stripped down)

Prince Lotor- Let her go fool!!

Prince Jarius- I'm afraid u'v busted into the wrong room my cousin. I don't know how u got out of u'r cell, but I'm having a little private moment with u'r beloved Princess.

Keith- U heard him jerk!! Get u'r hands off of her now!!!!!!

Prince Lotor- Yeah, before things get pretty ugly in here. Oh u'r not listening. (Gets his sword out & points it at Jarius' neck, while Keith is unchaining Shante)

Prince Jarius- (Lifts & looks up at Lotor, then notices Keith freeing Shante) Hey, u leave her there scruffy boy. She's my prisoner.

Prince Lotor- (Points sword further down toward him) I wouldn't move if I were u. (Shante reaches in Jarius' pocket for his sword & lazer gun) In fact, I want u to get up off the Princess.

Keith- (Looking furiously at Jarius like he's ready to cut thru his prime) U son of a bitch. I'd luv to break u in half!

Prince Lotor- (Looks at Jarius like a mad man with eyes turning red as fire after noticing Allura unclothed) U sick mutherfucker. I'd like to break u'r face.

Prince Jarius- So cousin. U think u'r tough! (Kicks Lotor in the stomach)

Princess Allura- (Gets up & kicks Jarius in the stomach knocking him the ground) Of course he's tough u son of a bitch. Even with all the evil deeds he's done, he's been better to me than u ever been.

Keith- And u've done so much harm to our planet & shown lack of remorse.

Princess Allura- (Kicks Jarius in the head knocking him unconscious) Both of these men are tougher than u'll ever be Jarius. (Kicks him in stomach) These are compliments of Crown Princess Allura Of Planet Arus for messin with them & my planet.

Shante- Oh & one thing. (Kicks him in head & stomach) And that's for doing what u did to my husband!! I got both u'r sword & u'r weapon now. U not that tough without it are u.

Keith- Come on let's go guys.

Lotor, Keith, Shante, & Allura are fleeing down the hallway & come across the Air Team.

Jeff- Hey, there u guys are. Cliff informed me of u'r courageous attempt to rescue the Princess & I lost u.

Ginger- There were quite a bit of guards & robots to tackle with. Allura, where's u'r clothes?

Princess Allura- Oh no. My clothes. I just have my underwear on. I feel embarrassed running down the hallway half naked.

Prince Lotor- I wish I could've thought to wrap u up in a blanket, but I'm so sore & weak all over that I can't carry u.

Princess Allura- Oh well, it's better to be free wearing only underwear than where I was.

Jeff- Let's move toward the ship

This part ends up with slaves being loaded onto the both Lotor's & Hazar's ships.

Largo- Hey, stop those slaves from boarding those ships.

The Air Team along with Keith is shooting down robots while running toward ship. Prince Lotor & Shante board Lotor's ship.

Shante- Hey, I'm not leaving without my husband. Where is he?

Red, Green, & Yellow lions fly overhead.

Lance- Come in Lotor. I have Snoop in here with me.

Prince Lotor- Oh thank u. U got my work cut out for me Lance.

Lance lets Snoop Dogg out into the cockpit section of Lotor's ship.

Snoop Dogg- Thanks nephew.

Shante- (Runs toward Snoop & hugs him) Baby u alright. I was so worried about u.

Snoop Dogg- I'm so happy u'r safe baby. I thought I'd never see or the kids again. Let's get in the ship where we're safe.

Lance picks up both Keith & Princess Allura & transports them to the lions.

Princess Allura- (Walks onto lion & looks back winking at Lotor) Anytime Prince. I hope we see each other soon.

Prince Lotor- (Looks in shock) The same to u Princess. Be careful in that Blue Lion now.

Queen Merla- Oh Lotor. U'r alright. I was so worried about u.

Prince Lotor- I'm all in one piece, but am a bit beat up & feel like I've been broken into a million pieces.

Queen Merla- We better get u back there to Lamora to nurse u. I'll pilot the ship for now.

Cossack runs up onto the ship.

Cossack- Oh so u think u'r gettin away.

Prince Lotor- (Shoots Cossack with stun gun) No I'm gettin away. U'r not.
(Lifts him onto ship & closes up the door) Everybody we're ready for take off.

Both Lotor's & Hazar's ships along with both Voltrons head off of Planet Doom into space & toward their destinations.

King Zarkon- How are they gettin away?

Haggar-I don't know.

King Zarkon- Why are u standing there? And where's Cossack & the rest of my trail. Jarius should be preventing their escape.

Haggar- Speaking of Jarius, I wonder where he went off to.

King Zarkon-He's gettin ready for his wedding, but then who knows who all he allowed to escape.

Haggar- Sire, I don't think he would've done such a thing. He's too wicked.

King Zarkon & Haggar walk into Prince Jarius' chambers & notice him unconscious.

King Zarkon- What!!! Why are u on the floor with u'r pants down my nephew.

Prince Jarius- (Is shocked) What? What happened to Princess & my mistress.

Largo- (Walks in) It seems like they've gotten away along with many slaves.

King Zarkon- U let them get away u fool. Get off my Planet & out of my site. I'll contact the Drule High-In Command to have u replaced with someone more highly skilled. I thought u were more competent than my underlings, but I guess I was wrong.

Haggar- What about u'r nephew sire?

King Zarkon- Take him to u'r laboratory. I pity his failures unlike Lotor's, cuz Jarius exhibits more pride in serving me than Lotor ever did. That's why I treat him with dignity & respect. I always wonder why he couldn't have been my son instead of a traitorous nincumpoop like Lotor.

Haggar- Lotor's too much like his mother.

King Zarkon- That's why I despise him so much. If I knew he was gonna become the thorn to my side like he's becum, we would've dun the same to him as we had done to kill his mother.

Haggar- Yeah, we would've been better off. We would've had our fleet of ships, more likely defeated Voltron, & still had competent Commanders.

King Zarkon- If only Yurak & Mogor were still alive, we would've recalled them back to their duties. Both of them were much more fit for carrying on my missions than Lotor.

Haggar- Well, we do have Prince Jarius, Cossack, & the rest of Drule Empire to assist us.

Robot- (Walks up) King Zarkon, Prince Lotor has captured Cossack.

King Zarkon- What! So my son that I never wish had been born decides to take away my Fleet Commander. I'll show him. When I strengthen my forces more, I shall conquer Lotor's world, Planet Arus, & the whole rest of the galaxy!

End of Part Eleven
