

Voltron/Snoop Dogg Crossover Story by Princess Iris
Chapter 12: Lotor's Family

Prince Lotor's Family

This part begins with Prince Lotor & his fleet heading toward the new world known as Planet Aden. Everybody is pretty much chillin inside the ship at the cockpit.

Snoop Dogg- Man, this is sum vacation. Traveling thru space, goin thru disaster on sum disastrous planet, & now we back up in this joint again.

Shante- This vacation is unlike so many others we've taken. Action-packed & adventurous, but I hope we never have to go back to that depressing planet again.

Queen Merla- I promise that u all won't have to go to that awful planet anymore. I apologize that u all had to go thru what we went thru back there. Lotor says our destination planet should definitely make up for the trip.

Snoop Dogg- Oh no problem. I hope he's okay back there. Man, it looked like them muthafuckas back at that awful place did him in real good.

Queen Merla- He's alright. He gettin rested up, cuz he's still a little banged up from where Zarkon & his nobles beat him really badly.

Shante- What I'd like to know is who that man is that bought on the ship with him? He was coming after us & he brings him along for the ride.

Queen Merla- That man was Zarkon's Fleet Commander, Cossack, The Terrible. Why he bought him along? Maybe just to capture & deliver him to the Alliance, so Zarkon would be short a Fleet Commander, but then he might also consider using him for his conquests.

Snoop Dogg- Why would he want to use him?

Queen Merla- Simple. Cossack worked as Lotor's right hand when Lotor was serving his father. Maybe there's a way he could convince Cossack to serve him, instead of Zarkon, but then Lotor might not trust him enuff.

Lotor walks into cockpit.

Prince Lotor- Were u all talkin about me?

Queen Merla- Oh yes, we was just discussing what u might possibly have in mind for Cossack.

Prince Lotor- Why should I trust that fool after what he did to me on that fake asteroid he had me lure the Voltron force too? The Lion Force might trust me more if Cossack would've just left me alone instead of begging me forgiveness.

Snoop Dogg- What do u plan to do with his ass?

Prince Lotor- Turn him over to the Alliance more likely. It just boils my mind that the Lion Force still can't trust me. Plus it shocked the hell out of me, when the Princess eyed me the way she did when we left Doom. Was she just doing that as a way of thanking me for assisting with her rescue or is she finally coming around?

Shante- Well.

Prince Lotor- Well, what? U 2 must've spoken to each other a lot when u were chained up in my cousin's chambers. Needless to say, I hate to call him my cousin, cuz he shames me.

Shante- Me & her went on about a lot of stuff. I got to know her really well, Lotor. She was a really sweet person. I would really like to see her again.

Prince Lotor- I sure hope she one day comes around. I still do luv her, but I also want to make peace with the LV force Captain.

Shante- Well, u both sure did work well together when freeing us from Jarius. Maybe u 2 have a chance.

Prince Lotor- I don't know. That could've been, cuz the Princess was involved. And u know how me & him both feel about her. Me & Keith been feuding the longest. The man hates my gutz. Here, I've became good, but that was only by my will & prooved myself to him & he could still consider me his worst enemy. That Lion force hates me worse than they do my Father.

Snoop Dogg- I don't know, but it sounds to me like it's just over that broad. Both of u must have a thing for her.

Prince Lotor- Yes indeed we both do. However, I'm not obsessing over her like I use to. Maybe she's better off with Keith. He luvs & protects her. Plus he's one she'll luv back. I'm kind of wondering about her right now.

Back at the Castle Of Lions, the Voltron Force is just getting back from their mission. The boys are walking far ahead of Princess Allura & pretty much not speaking to her.

Princess Allura- Man, that was a really close situation. I wondered if we'd make it out of there.

The boys keep walking fast, while ignoring the Princess' remarks & pass by the living area where Sven, Romelle, & Bandor are sitting.

Bandor- Oh thank gosh u guys made it back safely.

Sven- For a minute there, we thought u were lost forever.

Keith- Sven, I & the force here would like to speak to u alone for a minute.

Sven- What's goin on my friend?

Pidge- U don't want to know.

Prince Bandor- Guys, what happened back there?

Princess Allura- What did happen? Why are u guys not speaking to me? Did I do something to make u mad?

Keith- (Looks over at Princess Allura with fury) Princess, I have made the decision to permanently pull u from Blue Lion! Sven will replace u.

Princess Allura- (Looks on with shock) What!!! But why, Keith? Why would u want to pull me from my lion?

Lance- Princess, what u did back there on Planet Doom was totally uncalled for & not within u'r line of duties.

Hunk- We feel u've betrayed us & even u'r own Planet.

Princess Allura- What did I do?

Keith- U know what u damn well did Princess & it was totally on u'r part.

Princess Allura- But, I did nuthin. It wasn't my fault I was caught with Jarius without my clothes.

Lance- That isn't it.

Keith- Princess, after all he has done to u, u'r planet, u'r friends, & u'r cousin, how on God's earth could u save Prince Lotor? Nonetheless, not have grabbed a blanket when we booked from Jarius' chambers.

Princess Allura- He's changed his ways Keith, plus look at all the time he's protecting me just as u have. I owed it to him.

Lance- Yeah, not only was it rescuing Lotor, but the worst part was when u left Planet Doom giving him the gratitude of appreciation u did.

Princess Allura- I just thanked him Lance. After all, he helped Keith save me.

Keith- U thanked that creep alright, by practically flurting with him & even telling him that u'd welcome the chance to see him again.

Koran- (Walks in the living space) Team, is there something wrong?

Pidge- The Princess did a heroic deed for Lotor, plus giving him romantic gestures on top of it.

Koran- Princess, how could u? U'r Father would be displeased.

Nanny- (Trails behind)

Princess Allura- But Koran, I can explain. Can u hear me out?

Nanny- There's no excuses Prencess. That was unacceptable behavior making advances toward that monster. I want u confined to u'r room this instant.

Princess Allura- Guys, can u pleaz hear me out?

Koran- No, because u need to think about what u did.

Koran & Nanny carry a sobbing Princess Allura back to her bedroom, while everybody's quiet for a minute.

Keith- (Sits down with head faced down) How could she do this to us? Her best friends.

Lance- Tell me about it. Go the extra mile just to help that monster.

Prince Bandor- Guys, I think u need to lay off of her.

Hunk- What r' u talkin about?

Prince Bandor- U guys are being too hard on her. I understand that Lotor has done too many horrible things to us, but that was all in the past. He has done so much to redeem himself. Look what all he did back on Doom. All the slaves he rescued from Zarkon. He even weakened his forces by raiding his treasure chest. He's done many good deeds back on Planet Earth & since he's been back in this galaxy. It was hard for me to trust him, but he hasn't posed a threat to that Snoop Dogg guy.

Lance- Oh & one more thing. I'll never again buy another Snoop Dogg album, cuz he chooses to befriend that creep. When I had my moment with him in Red Lion, he spoke so high of Lotor & claimed that they're both like brothers where it made me think twice of him.

Prince Bandor- Guys, u'r taking this too far. I've had nuthin but hate for Lotor, but I'm beginning to come around. Besides, if I can remember right, I don't think Lotor's evil deeds were that intentional. Look at all the fights Lotor got in with Zarkon. U know something tells me that he didn't ask to be put in Zarkon's mess.

Princess Romelle- I'll definitely vouch for that Bandor. Even though Lotor has done things to me that were out of character, I witnessed so much of what happened with Lotor on Planet Doom during time held captive there. He didn't want to be like his Father & badly wanted a out.

Keith- Well, u both can take up for Lotor all u want to. Just remember all the horrible things he did to u, u'r family, & u'r Planet.

Sven- Keith, Romelle is right. U must not always fault Lotor.

Pidge- Okay, who did u rescue Romelle from?

Hunk- And whom threw u down the pit of skulls?

Princess Romelle- But that was cuz he had no choice, cuz he was serving under his Father.

Keith- Okay, if u all want to take up for that monster, be it than. It's just next time he's invading u'r planet & enslaving u'r people, don't call me for help.

Nanny- Now now now. All this bickering needs to stop!

Everybody gets quiet.

Princess Romelle- (Gets up) If u guys don't mind, I'm going back to check up on my cousin. At least I've not turned against her like everyone else

Princess Romelle gets up & leaves the room.

Prince Lotor is in his chambers with Snoop Dogg & Lotor pulls out a huge shiny 100kt Gold Diamond ring with a real solid emerald out of his holdchest.

Snoop Dogg- Hey, Prince, what's troubling u? Seems like u have things on u'r mind.

Prince Lotor- Yes, indeed I do Snoop Dogg. Have u ever been caught up in a luv triangle?

Snoop Dogg- What's that?

Prince Lotor- Have two different women u've had feelings for? Snoop, I no longer obsessed with the Princess of Arus, but I still do luv & have genuine feelings for Allura. I feel like for some reason that she's the one for me. Something is drawing me toward her like some magnet.

Snoop Dogg- Well, even though u two may not have something goin on right now, maybe there's one day she might come around.

Prince Lotor- I don't know, Snoop, but I'm in really deep situation here as far as my romantic life is concerned.

Snoop Dogg- What else?

Prince Lotor- I've also fallen a luv with another beautiful woman who has been there by my side thick & thin. I don't know what could've became of me on Planet Earth when we got arrested if she didn't show up when she did. Nevertheless, she's practically the only person from the Denubian Galaxy while I was away who's spoken to me. We've been doing well as friends, but now somehow her attention toward, care, & compassion toward me has made me feel something for her. (Unlocks his hold chest, grabs a ring case, opens it, & holds it up to Snoop)

Snoop Dogg- Wooow! Look at that muthafucka. I bet u had to fly thru so many galaxies just to buy that thing.

Prince Lotor- Snoop, during my time with Merla, we somehow wound up in this country called Morocco. Me & her out of no where & not thinking had made luv to each other in this chateau we stayed at. We kissed & showed each other complete affection. I luv Queen Merla & wish to give her this ring.

Snoop Dogg- To symbolize u'r relationship?

Prince Lotor- Oh, more than that. I plan to find the right time to ask her to marry me. Even though I still wish I could have Allura, I somehow have figured out that maybe she wasn't meant for me. Captain Keith is who she's made for. He's her Knight in Shining Armour. Queen Merla would make the best wife for me.

Snoop Dogg- I think so too, but I think u should give this some time. What if Allura changes her mind?

Queen Merla pages Lotor.

Queen Merla- Prince Lotor, the ship is approaching Planet Aden. We've arrived at our destination

Prince Lotor- (rushes up to the cockpit & stands beside Merla combing the Planet Aden) Awwww. It's so beautiful. More beautiful than Arus & Earth combined. I can't wait to settle here.

Princess Allura is in her room lying on her bed cryin with her little space mice wiping away the tears.

Princess Allura- Thank u so much. U've always stuck by me. I just can't believe this is happening. Maybe I should have just left Lotor alone.

Cheddar- (Shakes his head & squeals)

Princess Allura- So u think I did right by saving Prince Lotor?

(Princess Romelle knocks on Princess Allura's door)

Princess Allura- (Crying) Go away, I don't wish to be bothered!

Princess Romelle- Allura, it's me.

Princess Allura- Go ahead, come in.

Princess Romelle- (Walks over & sits on Allura's bed beside her) Ally, I came back to see if u were alright. I think the Voltron force is taking this too serious. I & Prince Bandor happen to admire the fact u saved Lotor's life.

Princess Allura- It just wasn't the fact Lotor always saved me & had his feelings, but something in my heart told me that this job was meant to be done & it was to be performed by me. I just feel so bad, because I've hurt Keith.

Princess Romelle- I'm sure he'll get over it. I think he was taking the situation overboard by pulling u out of blue lion. He & the boys also seem to make out like u did something with Lotor at one time.

Princess Allura- Romelle, me & Keith have had a thang for each other ever since the day he walked in the doors of my castle. So many months after being friends, colleagues, & protectors of this planet, I've begun to have a more romantic relationship with him. I & Keith have feelings for each other. I've turned down proposals from every Prince who's done so, cuz I'd rather have Keith rule beside me. He's my hero & best friend.

Princess Romelle- If he's that sincere toward u, u'd think he'd understand u more & stand beside u. Come on, Princess, let's go outside for a stroll.

Both Princesses are strolling outside in the gardens outside the castle.

Princess Allura- I've always been in luv with Keith & hopefully one day, we can wed together, I don't care if I go against the laws set by this planet. My father had approved him & I can remember us reaching out & holding each other's hands like I thought that this would be the man I spend the rest of my life with him.

Princess Romelle- How deep!

Princess Allura- But now, thru all of this, I'm beginning to think there's something missing from our relationship. For some reason, something is crossed over in me. Romelle, do u think there's someone else out there for me. Do u think I was meant to be with Keith afterall?

Princess Romelle- Well, from what I honestly notice & my experience with Sven, I have to compare possibilities. I hate to bring these words to u, but I'd rather do so than to keep u wondering.

Princess Allura- So do u think that Keith is meant for me?

Princess Romelle- Allura, Sven is totally resigned from the Alliance to be with me. U & Keith have a romantic relationship together which had evolved out of u'r working relationship from piloting the lions. U too make a good team, but at the same time, I see some fault that means u'r luv life with Keith could wind up as temporary.

Princess Allura- Oh no. what can that mean? I don't want to lose Keith. (Cries)

Princess Romelle- I'm sorry Allura, but some things turn out to not be the way they seem. There will come a time when Keith gets recalled back to the Alliance & appointed to a high rank after serving his time here Piloting Voltron & with his mission on Arus. He'll most likely remember & keep u in his heart, but then fall for somebody else who is more fit for him.

Princess Allura- But what about me? Where will I be? Stuck in this castle as a little Princess wearing these frilly pink outfits & dresses with no control over my planet, because I have an advisor & governess who practically runs my life & tells me what to do. Nonetheless, Keith never even speaks up for me on my behalf. He's often too overprotective to the point where he tells me what to do & doesn't let wander off by myself.

Princess Romelle- Perhaps, u are missing out on too much & letting life pass u by. U only leave Planet Arus to pilot Blue Lion. I have to come over here to visit u.

Princess Allura- U'r right Romelle. I'm so glad I have u as my cousin. U'r my best friend. I believe there's somebody else out there for me who will luv & show me more affection than Keith.

Princess Romelle- Anytime & don't doubt yourself for what u did as far as Lotor. I'm sure something good will come out of it.

In the spaceship, Snoop Dogg, Prince Lotor, Queen Merla, Lamora, & Shante are skimming the features of the New World.

Queen Merla- This place is so breathtaking.
Lotor, I never thought u'r Mother's home planet was this beautiful.

Shante- I never thought a planet covered with crystals, gleaming waters, with such odd, exotic, but colorful landscape even existed.

Snoop Dogg- This planet reminds me of them planets I watch on movies like Neverending Story. There must be an abundance of riches here.

Prince Lotor- That's why my father so much lusted for this planet. Hey, there's a white, glittering castle straight ahead of us. That must be the castle where we'll be staying at. Let's prepare for landing.

Outside, many people are lining the Castle's sidewalks welcoming Prince Lotor.

Little boy (Stanley)- So Dad, is this guy a Prince?

Dad (Mike)- He's formally known as the Crown Prince Of Doom & son of the evil King Zarkon. However, he's not really son of King Zarkon. Lotor is son of our late Queen Altora who had been captured after he killed the late King Rokar. Lotor's true origin has been kept secret from him all his life. He's to discover this on his own.

Man in the crowd (Abelis)- He's technically speaking, the true Prince Of Aden & ruler of the Planet. His family had been wanting to search for him for many years, but couldn't because King Zarkon had a hold on this planet.

Prince Lotor's ship lands in the Castle Square & everybody delivers his welcoming ceremony as he walks out the ship with his friends trailing behind him.

Prince Lotor- What's goin on?

One of Planet Aden's Palace Guards greet Lotor as he's departing his ship.

Guard (Baisley) - We welcome u Prince Lotor to the Planet Aden. We have so long been awaiting u'r arrival to this planet, so has u'r sister, Princess Iris who is temporarily ruler of this planet has decided to grant u this warm welcome.

Prince Lotor- U mean I have a sister whom I've never known?

Princess Iris- (Comes running happily with tears running down u'r face) Lotor, oh my brother. (Hugs Lotor) I and the rest of u'r kin are so delightfully happy to see u. We've never met u & been searching for u many years. Let me show u to the dinner parlor where the rest of the family awaits u. I'm so happy to see u Prince Lotor. It's been a long long time & I must assure u that Planet Aden is u'r permanent home planet.

Prince Lotor- (Smiles with tears rolling down his face) I'm so happy to be here. These are people who seem to show me lots of luv & I get to see the family I never knew.

Prince Lotor, Princess Iris, & his entourage are escorted by Castle Knight soldiers into the Dining Parlor where Prince Lotor's family awaits him.

Princess Iris- The royal family of Planet Aden, introduce to u, my brother by the same blood, Prince Lotor who we now give the title as being Ruler of Planet Aden. He's the gentlemen that Queen Merla of Furia & Formerly Queen of Darkness has informed us about.

Queen Ida (Mother of Queen Altora) - My grandson, Crown Prince Lotor, it's a pleasure to see u. U have grown to be a very handsome man with so much bravery, determination, & strength. I'm delighted & relieved that Queen Merla has found u & accompanied u on u'r safe journey.

Prince Sina- Prince Lotor, I'm u'r cousin. Welcome home.

Everyone claps & cheers giving him the warmest sense of welcome he had ever in his whole life, besides what he had on Planet Earth.

Snoop Dogg- My my my. Prince, u have a beautiful family. This trip was well worth it.

Prince Lotor- And family, this is my friend who has become my adopted brother in Christ, who I gladly will now give the title to as my Advisor & Ambassador, Snoop Dogg. He & his family have traveled with us from Planet Earth.

Snoop Dogg- (Looks at him like what the heck) Hmmm? Ambassador?

Prince Lotor- Yes, any soul with a fancy title needs a right hand in his corner & I've chosen that person to be u, my friend.

Princess Iris- Lotor, ever since the fall of our late, King Rokar & capture of our mother, Queen Altor, I & u'r cousin, Prince Sina have shared the roles of fulfilling duties for ruling Planet Aden. We have heard thru the grapevine amongst this galaxy that u were still well & alive. However, with u having had served under King Zarkon as Crown Prince Of Doom, we lost hope that u would ever discover u'r origin & return to u'r rightful place, but thanks to u'r determination in wishing to learn more about u'r mother & Queen Merla finding the facts, she had immediately contacted us. Now that u have made the rightful choice of making u'r journey home, due to the fact that u are royally speaking by the laws of Planet Aden, u are the ruler of Planet Aden.

Queen Ida- U are the Crown Prince ruler of Planet Aden, Lotor, Congratulations.

Chef Watts- I now shall serve a dinner to the royal family as a celebration that the Crown Prince Of Aden has returned home.

Princess Iris- Have a seat right beside me here at the end, Lotor. We are the VIP tonite at this special occasion. I've saved this seat special for u & the ones here at the side for u'r friends. Snoop Dogg, Queen Merla, & whoever else is with Prince Lotor, we welcome u to join us in this feast.

Snoop Dogg- Damn Prince, today's our lucky day.

Shante- Talk about the luxury we live back at home. This is extravagant. Not pondering Princess, but we've never seen a place like this.

Princess Iris- I've heard about Planet Earth. It must be very much different.

Prince Lotor- It is. It's more like Planet Arus & Pollux, except more oceans, enormous cities, & deserts. From what I've seen of Planet Earth, it is a planet of diverse landscapes & soils.

Prince Sina- U haven't seen too much of Planet Aden yet. U have to check everything out on this planet. I & my brother here, Prince Ahrens who is also u'r 1st cousin will be touring u around the planet in our aircraft.

Queen Ida- After dinner Prince Lotor, I & u'r sister have some family business & the history of this Planet to discuss with u in King Rokar's toom.

Prince Lotor- I'm open to that. (Gives friendly smile) That's the main reason I've come here, but I'm still curious even since I will be staying here now.

Prince Lotor is still in the Dining Parlor with his family. The family whom he has been united with is his sister, Princess Iris, King Rokar's nephews, Prince Lotor's 1st cousin, Prince Sina, Prince Sina's brother, Prince Ahrens, his sister, Princess Sheeka, Prince Lotor's Auntie, Queen Mira, Queen Altora's sister, Queen Zealot, & her kids which are also Prince Lotor's first cousins, Prince Richie, Princess Sydney, Prince James, & Princess Latvia. Then there's his aging Grandmother, Queen Ida who is the person along with his sister Princess Iris who guides Prince Lotor in his quest to find his heritage & destiny. The three along with Snoop Dogg, Queen Merla, lamora, & Shante are walking down a large corridor hallway looking at paintings, photographs, ceramics, & other works of art.

Snoop Dogg- Man, this reminds me of a huge Art museum.

Shante- This stuff looks so magical & authentic.

Queen Ida- Planet Aden is best known as place of natural treasures & art. The planet has many riches & beauty to it, which has been retained ever since the creation of this planet.

Prince Lotor- (Eyes the pictures & notices one of his Mother & the King) This is. This is my Mother. (Touches picture) Oh, I miss her. She was the most beautiful person besides Princess Allura. (Notices the man) Who's the man, Grandma?

Queen Ida- That man is the late King Rokar. Him & Queen Altora were married at the time of Rokar's death at the hands of Zarkon.

Prince Lotor- (Stares at the man who bears a strong resemblance to him. The man in the photo has white shiny hair which is only half as long as his, Has thin white mustache & thick white eyebrows) Grandma, there's something about that man that heightens my curiosity.

Snoop Dogg- Sure the fuck does. I have to proudly admit Prince Lotor, that the man looks a lot like u.

Prince Lotor- And he does Snoop. I look more like this man than my fish face father back over on Planet Doom.

Princess Iris- There's a long story behind that Lotor, that we must now tell u. We so much feel guilty that we couldn't tell u much sooner. King Zarkon many years ago stripped us of our spacecrafts & the essentials to build one.

Queen Ida- Prince Lotor, I only wished we could've had the forces & sources to come rescue u from that awful place u've spent all u'r life at. It's tore me up to hear that that monster, King Zarkon put u thru that awful Drule Academy to make u evil enuff to do his evil, dirty work. It made my day to hear that u got out of that place & found u'r way home.

Prince Lotor- Pleaz tell me all that's happened Grandma.

Snoop Dogg- I think u might need to sit somewhere comfortable for this one Prince.

Prince Lotor- Merla, I need u to comfort & hold me, cuz I have a strong feeling of what I'm about to hear.

Shante- (to Snoop Dogg) In fact, baby I think we should all sit down, cuz this is our friend here.

Snoop Dogg- Great idea.

Everyone sits on the plushy sofa in the lounge which is almost to the toom.

Queen Ida begins to tell the story of Planet Aden & it's rulers.

Queen Ida- Planet Aden for many thousands of years has been a planet with rich land, crystal clear waters, glorious cities, Ice & snow scapes, & large towering crystals everywhere one can travel. My Grandsons will be taking u all for a tour around the planet tomorrow. The planet is best known for it's crystal structures, gold mines, mineral rocks, & precious substances. The nature of this planet is what's made it known for it's riches. A majority of the planets' economy come from our natural resources, elements, farming & arts and entertainment.. This is Queen Altor's home planet & is also home to her Father's ancestors. As u can see on the wall, these are pictures of the many Kings & Queens who have ruled this planet for many centuries.

Prince Lotor- Looks like my family tree.

Snoop Dogg- This guy looks like he was into militia type shit.

Queen Ida- That man was the 5th previous King & yes he was pretty much into military work. As u arrived here, u probably noticed soldiers & horses marching into the square. Well, his name was King Tabor & he improved our military forces. Now back to where we were. I was the Princess of Planet Tabista which is located in the 7th Kingdom where Queen Merla now rules.

Queen Merla- Hmmm. I can't believe I didn't know that. I guess I better study up more on my history.

Queen Ida- The time came when I would get proposal letters from Princes on other Planets. Even though I was Princess, I had no heir to the throne. My brother was heir to my Mother's throne, because it was in the laws to do so. The laws on my planet were that if the male is a royal, then he must be the main ruler of the planet. My father was a Knight instead of a King, because my Mother merely chose to marry a noble instead of another royal. That's why my Mother who was Queen Celcia was the main ruler. She grew older & became unable to fulfill her duties, so my brother, Prince Malice became King. I received letters from different Princes in the universe. In order for me to retain any royal position, then I needed to marry another who was in a royal position. I had a choice between Prince Katlin of this planet, Prince Saja on Planet Pollux, & Prince Falik on Planet Demos. Planet Katlin was the best fit for me, because he was one that could be trusted & loyal to his subjects.

Prince Lotor- So Prince Katlin, here is my Grandfather. What's happened to him.

Queen Ida- Him & King Rokar were both killed in a battle with Zarkon's forces.

Prince Lotor- (Frowns with fury) I could just kill that fish face. Does he know what it means to miss his Grandfather? Look at what all I've missed, because of that fool keeping me sheltered in the evil environment in which he did.

Queen Ida- That's not all. I & Prince Katlin were both married by his father King Creaseman in the Castle's Square. Many people from all over the galaxy had attended. Him & I had bore three children. Queen Altor, her sister Queen Zealot, & brother, Prince Hoyas. Prince Hoyas would've had heir to the throne, but instead he chose to be on another planet with his true luv instead of being King. That left Queen Altor & Queen Zealot as heirs, but the laws at the time were that they had to provide a suitable mate.

Queen Merla- Sounds like the rules on Planet Arus.

Queen Ida- Well Queen Altor's husband, King Rokar, had come from the nearby Planet Swalia. His brother, Prince Nomas was older & therefore had first heir to his Father's throne. Queen Altor had met King Rokar at a ball which was held by his father. This is when they began dating & seeing each other. King Rokar's father wasn't too hot up on his son marrying Queen Altor, because there was the possibility of Prince Nomas not fulfilling his duties, but he did what Prince Hoyas did. Prince Rokar & Queen Altor were married in the Castle's Square by my husband & I. It wasn't long that we decided to hand the rulership of this planet over to Rokar & Altor. Well, the reason for this was due to the emergence of the Drule Empire. Planet Aden needed someone who was younger & more fit to take on affairs of this planet.

Prince Lotor- So this is where it all started.

Queen Ida- Before King Zarkon began attacking, u'r mother & King Rokar bore a child, who is u'r sister, Princess Iris. Queen Altor then became pregnant with another child by King Rokar during the time when King Zarkon was invading & trying to take over the planet. Zarkon wanted this planet for it's riches & made many of it's people his slaves. I would keep the kids safe beneath the Castle, but King Rokar wanted to fight him personally in battle. Katlin didn't want him going alone, so he tagged along. They both fought King Zarkon in French Quarters Canyon & King Rokar & his forces were all blown away by Zarkon's ships.

Prince Lotor- (Shakes head) Sounds like King Rokar died the same way King Alfor did. Why was King Zarkon my Father?

Queen Ida- Well, u no longer should be ashamed, because Queen Altor was 4 months pregnant with a son right when King Rokar was killed. When King Zarkon overthrown Rokar on that awful afternoon, he headed toward the castle. He destroyed it & took many people to Planet Doom. One of those was Queen Altor. He noticed her & was drawn by her beauty & decided to take her for himself. From then on, we would never see her again or the child she would bear 4 mos. later. She would however send us letters about the newborn she had. Zarkon had raped her, so she conceive a heir for him. What Zarkon didn't realize was that Altor was pregnant with Rokar's son & when she had the baby, she made Zarkon think it was his son by means of protecting it.

Prince Lotor- (Shocked) What?

Queen Ida- Lotor, my Grandson, King Zarkon is not u'r father. U'r real father is King Rokar.

End Of Part Twelve
