

Voltron/Snoop Dogg Crossover Story by Princess Iris
Chapter 13: It's Hard to Deal with the Past

This part begins with Prince Lotor crying in tears with his family. His mind is filled with anger until he's taken to the toom.

Prince Lotor- (Weeping a million tears) Why? Why? Why? Did that evil fish face monster steal me from my own family? I've committed so much evil in his name. So many bad deeds that can't be erased. Why have I become what I become?

Queen Ida- Lotor, my darling, we would've come for u so much sooner. Oh, how I wish we had a way. (Cries on Lotor's shoulder & comforts him.) I & the rest of the family were so worried for u'r sake. I & u'r Uncle Nomis would've gave anything to come to Doom, rescue u & bring u back home.

Prince Lotor- Why wasn't there a way?

Queen Ida- When King Zarkon took over the planet, he had shut off all our communications, plus demolished all our ships. We didn't have the resources coming from other planets to build new ships, plus our communications was only in a small range, which means that we only had contact with nearby planets. Planet Swalia & my home planet. And all their ships were pretty much destroyed & they didn't have the resources to rebuild new ships. Zarkon had stripped our worlds down to completely nothing. He kept hold on our planets until he invaded Planet Arus & began destroying it. U was maybe like 18 when Zarkon began his conquest for Arus. When his mind was set on Arus, Aden was pretty much put on the backburner. Since Zarkon paid little or no attention to Aden, we was able to rebuild our cities which were destroyed, but many of the people taken by him as slaves had perished on Doom. At this time, he had killed King Alfor in battle the same way in which he killed u'r Father.

Queen Ida Continues on with the story.

Prince Lotor- I wonder if my Father & King Alfor had any connections with each other?

Queen Ida- Yes, indeed they knew each other quite well & were good friends. If only King Alfor knew of Queen Altora having a son on Planet Doom & what happened with King Rokar on the day Zarkon murdered him, then Alfor would've sent forces to u & u'r Mother's rescue. Since our communications were totally shut off, we couldn't contact Planet Arus, due to the distance.

Snoop Dogg- After traveling the distance here that we did from Arus & Doom, I could see. This muthafucka is clear over on the other side of the galaxy.

Shante- And I guess, with it being as far as it is, Zarkon & Alfor probably had their affairs to deal with to the point where Planet Aden was just out of reach.

Queen Merla- It was a wonder why Zarkon didn't hold onto this planet, with the treasures it has.

Prince Lotor- Zarkon must've had too many other planets in which he conquered that he just all of a sudden one day forgotten about this place.

Queen Ida- Zarkon took a lot of riches while he was here & practically left us scraping for gold. Due to the fact this planet is able to naturally build back it's resources, we have been able to gain back what was lost, but it's taken more time, due to the fact we can't transport materials to other planets.

Snoop Dogg- Well, couldn't other planets have came over here?

Princess Iris- Shitty communications, thanks to Zarkon. Nobody knew what was going on with us.

Prince Lotor- I can't believe this. What a son of a bitch! My life's been shot to hell, because this muthafucka stole me from u. So I could say that the statement Zarkon & Haggar made about my Mother leaving wasn't true

Snoop Dogg- She couldn't have. Plus there were no communications. Did anybody know what really what happened to her?

Princess Iris- I'd have to say that Zarkon & Haggar probably both killed her with some poison when u were away from her.

Prince Lotor- I remember that. I was 5yrs. old, came down with pnemonia, & with my Childhood nurse that whole time. I returned to my Mother's chambers only to notice her gone forever. When she was alive, I often stayed with her 24/7. Mom made every effort to shield me from the wrath of learning Zarkon's evil ways. I then notice how jealous he would get & attempts he would make to take me from her. He didn't want me around my Mother. The only way he would've had his way with me was to kill her, so Haggar must've made some poisonous potion to commit her murder. Nevertheless, Haggar was also very jealous of my Mother, because of her beauty which is what gave her more attention from Zarkon.

Shante- (Shakes Head with sad look on face) That's terrible that u had to spend u'r childhood in the way that u did.

Snoop Dogg- I know u probably right now want to kill them muthafuckas back on Doom.

Prince Lotor- And yes I indeed wish to do that. (Angrily speaks) I want to take a whole fleet of ships & blast everything on that miserable planet including Zarkon, Haggar, & their forces to bits. I will blow that planet away till there's nothing left of it. I don't want any memories of that disgusting place & see or hear of any other planet or people suffering under him. His slaves will be gone from his existence, cuz they will home living in peace on their planets.

Queen Merla- In a way, Lotor, it was like u were one of his slaves, but forced to do the most dangerous work.

Prince Lotor- Yes, he had me conquer planets, take many captives, rob them of their riches, & commit many horrible acts of inhumanity. I should never have become what I became. There have been many times when I could've been jailed or killed at no fault of my own.

Queen Ida- It wasn't u'r fault my Prince. U was in a Life & Death situation. It was either do as he asked or else, but u'r destiny has changed u to what u originally were to become. U'v fought on the side of evil, but u'v become a strong fighter & an effective leader. U don't give up & u'r strong-willed. Due to the fact u'v lead Dooms forces, u & Queen Merla both know the ins & outs of the Drule Empire. Planet Aden will be strong once more & will strike back against the Empire.

Prince Lotor- Yes, I will. I have many plans for Aden when my rulership begins.

Queen Ida- For now, we shall go to u'r Father's toom.

Everybody leaves the room to go to the toom.

Everybody walks into the toom after Queen Ida unlocks the tall heavy doors, with Prince Lotor leading the way & kneeling at his casket with his sister, Princess Iris kneeling beside him.

Queen Ida- King Rokar, u'r son has made it here.

King Rokar's spirit appears.

King Rokar- My son, Prince Lotor u have succeeded in u'r mission of finding u'r home & u'r planet. I have been long awaiting this day for u to arrive home & begin a new life here on Aden. I've so deeply been worried sick & been hurt to see all that u & u'r Mother have experienced under the hands of Zarkon. U'r mother is safe here with me. (Queen Altorra appears beside King Rokar)

Prince Lotor- Mother!!!!

Queen Altorra- Lotor, my son, my spirit lies right beside u'r Father. I wish I could've lived to see u grow, but unfortunately King Zarkon & his witch Haggar had cut that short by administering me poison thru my veins with a syringe. I grown weak & became short of breath, then faded away. I wish I could've told u about u'r Father as a little boy, but somebody on Doom could've overheard me, plus u wasn't old enough to understand. I would confide the information to u when u got older, but that couldn't be done, due to the fact Zarkon took my life sooner.

King Rokar- I & u'r Mother are so overjoyed & happy that u'v made it home. For a minute there, we thought u had fallen into King Zarkon's clutches & made his works of evil take over u. U may have made many mistakes, but that was thru no fault of u'r own. However, u'v grown to be a brave, will-powered, spirited, & strongly determined young man. U'r just the type of leader

Planet Aden needs. I & u'r Mother are proud of u my son.

Prince Lotor- Father, Mother, if only we could've had more time together. My gosh, I'd like to right now kill that evil bastard.

Queen Altor- We may not be alive, but we will always be here for u. Watch over u, protect u, & help u thru. U'r always welcome down here.

Princess Iris- Brother, I always come down here to speak to Mom & Dad. It's like they're still here, except we have to come down here to talk to them.

Queen Merla- Reminds me of King Alfor's ghost on Planet Arus. Princess Allura often says his ghost appears to her time after time.

Prince Lotor- Where were u guys at when I was on Doom?

Queen Altor- We attempted to contact u thru u'r dreams. Plus, unlike Alfor's spirit, our spirits remains here in our toom.

Snoop Doog- Yeah, but u'v found me in the Pit Of Skulls. If it wasn't u, I would've never gotten outta there.

Prince Lotor- U also came into the cell Zarkon had me chained up in.

Queen Altor- That was because u'v made the rightful decision to give up evil. U & u'r friends were in trouble, which for some reason made my spirit strong enough to appear to u On Doom.

King Rokar- Now for the main course of this discussion. Prince Lotor, I now officially make u ruler of Planet Aden. Queen Ida & u'r sister Princess Iris shall crown u as King at a Coronation which will be set soon.

Prince Lotor- Thank u for the priviledge Father. I shall plan a ceremony, festivities, & evening ball for that big day.

King Rokar- Do as u may, my son. U have my approval. Until u marry, u'r sister, Princess Iris shall rule beside u until u marry. The woman u marry will become queen.

Princess Iris- Lotor plans to marry father & he has his ideas

King Rokar- I realize u have fallen in luv with 2 lovely ladies, which definitely have my approval. However, one of them needs another.

Prince Lotor- What's that mean?

Snoop Dogg- That's his friends' approval that is if u'r still interested Prince.

Prince Lotor- How could I do that?

Snoop dogg- Oh, Mr. Alfor.

King Alfor's ghost appears.

King Rokar- Lotor, my good friend King Alfor has something he must say to u.

King Alfor- Prince Lotor, I'm dearly impressed with how u've made it thru the many obstacles u've been faced with. U'r indeed a heroic warrior who's admirable & will in turn be looked to by all in this galaxy. If I only knew that Zarkon had a son & wife he was keepin imprisoned on Planet Doom, I definitely would've come for u. U may have made mistakes which u had no control over, but u have now found u'r true inner soul & decided to stick to what u were meant to be. U've redeemed yourself & now willing to join the forces of good. From the moment I watched u from heaven, I seen u commit Zarkon's acts, but I knew there was heart & goodness in u. Especially, the moment when u first laid eyes on my daughter.

Prince Lotor- Alfor, u'r highness, I would've gave my life up just for her.

King Alfor- I had my reasons at first to not let u near my daughter, but I do still realize that u'r still in luv with my daughter, Princess Allura.

Prince Lotor- I still luv her, mighty King of Arus.

King Alfor- In the event, u two for some reason have hearts that meet each other, I do grant u approval to marry my daughter, but that's only if she approves of u.

Prince Lotor- Thank u so much Alfor.

King Rokar- Son, Alfor, I, & u'r mother will always be here when u need us. Welcome Home.

Queen Altor- It's u'r's to cherish forever, my son.

King Rokar- Farewell.

Spirits disappear.

Prince Lotor & Snoop Dogg are riding in a minature aircraft with Lotor's cousins, Prince Sina & Prince Ahrens touring the planet.

Snoop Dogg- So that prick King back on that dark ass planet turned out not to be u'r Father after all? Ya know, from the moment I seen u two together at our capture, I always thought there were some similarities, but yet many differences too.

Prince Lotor- It made me wonder something to. Especially, by our looks & sense of charms. I'm feeling relieved. Zarkon had never been much of a father to me anyway & all them denizens on Planet Doom all pretty much treated like a victim instead of a royal Prince. (Looks down at the Polar Cap) Boy, this planet is so beautiful.

Prince Ahrens- Hey, u haven't seen enuff of it yet. That place down there is known as Ice Wonder plateau. There are many Ice caves down there & many of our pure crystalites come from there. That shiny silvery castle is home to the keeper of this land. He's known as White Wonder Lion, who is practically half lion & half human. U will see a lot of him at Royal Events.

Craft leaves Ice Wonder Plateau crossing a sea into a series of mountains.

Prince Sina- These are known as the Shafty Mountains. This is where our gold, jewels, & gems come from. That gemmed up castle there belongs to Emperess Lilith.

Prince Lotor- I'm noticing that I have many different kingdoms run by different people.

Snoop Dogg- That takes the pressure off ruling a planet. U have peoples watchin over little pieces of the planet.

Prince Lotor- Oh, what's this place with all this green meadowland & waterfalls. Looks like I'll be coming here a lot. This place is breathtaking.

Prince Sina- This is known as the Clearfalls Land region. Our sister, Princess Sheeka watches over this land for us. We spend a lot of time here & since the land is so clear, & beautiful with precious riches, Princess Iris & I thought it would be best that a person of royal position watch over this place. That pink castle over there is where she lives.

Snoop Dogg- Prince, u've been blessed. After all u've been thru, u deserve to rule this planet. Now, it looks like we in a desert.

Prince Lotor- I don't think I wish to know this place. I'm gettin bad vibes.

Prince Sina- It's the French Lick desert, which is where the French Quarters Canyon is located.

Prince Lotor- That's where both my Father & Grandfather were killed. I sure would like to kill both Zarkon & Jarius in this same exact location.

Snoop Dogg- I feel ya on that one.
What's that big ass place down there?

Prince Sina- It's known as the fabulous Topazic City, the largest city on this planet. Planet Aden has many major cities u will have to get to know. The other 4 major cities are Sapharia, Emerald Stone Springs, Chaporio, & Vidalia. Chaporio is the planet's industrial capital.

Prince Lotor- Not to say, but it looks a little dirtier than every other place I've seen on this planet.

Snoop Dogg- I guess it will be u'r job to fix that, Prince.

Prince Lotor- Thanks, Ambassador Snoop. Damn, check out that jungle down there.

Prince Ahrens- That is the Artunian Jungle. Home to a lot of Natives who sometimes are rumored to be cannibals. Due to that fact, we've pretty much avoided that place in the past. However, u'r other cousin, Prince Richie had made successful attempt to befriend the cannibalistic natives & decided that dangerous prisoners could be dropped into that place.

Snoop Dogg- U might want to think about that French Quarter deal. I'd like to see u throw both Zarkon & Jarius down in that muthafucka.

Prince Lotor- (Smiles & laughs) I'd sure like to see the natives have thier way with them.

Prince Lotor & the guys arrive back at the Castle & Shante greets them.

Snoop Dogg- Baby, u missed a great tour. I think we've found us a permanent vacation spot.

Prince Lotor- Vacation? Hey, I thought of allowing u to stay for good.

Snoop Dogg- I don't know, Prince. We'd luv to stay here, but I have a life back on Earth. However, we will be staying for a while.

Prince Lotor- Hey, make yourself at home. (Turns to Princess Iris) Iris, I need to speak with u.

Princess Iris- What's goin on brother?

Prince Lotor- I wish to contact the Alliance.

Princess Iris- What for?

Prince Lotor- I wish to unite my beautiful, breathtaking planet with the good planets of this galaxy. & tell them about my situation.

Queen Ida- What a great decision! I've always wanted our planet to unite with the Alliance.

Prince Lotor- I shall do that now.

Prince Lotor & Snoop Dogg both contact the Alliance.

Prince Lotor- General Howell, cum in pleaz.

General Howell- Good evening Prince. How's life on Aden?

Prince Lotor- Oh beautiful. We made it safely here & I'm luvng every bit of my home planet

General Howell- It's great to hear that u are doin well, kiddo.

Prince Lotor- General, I don't know if u've ever heard of King Rokar.

General Howell- I've heard a lot of him from Koran & citizens of Planet Arus.

Prince Lotor- Oh good! Do u ever remember his wife, Queen Altorra, who is my mother being pregnant with a son when Zarkon captured her?

General Howell- Dunno, but did I just hear u call u'r Father by his name?

Prince Lotor- Yes, indeed & u know why?

General Howell- I'm anxious to know.

Prince Lotor- Well the news is & if u don't believe me, feel free to come here & speak to Rokar's ghost yourself. The truth is that King Zarkon is not my Father. My true father is King Rokar. He looks a lot like me too. Zarkon stole me when he killed my Mother. I'm ready to kill them bastards over there on Doom for stealing my childhood & youth from me. This is a beautiful place which I'm proud of. It makes me not only take pride in my planet, but other good planets in the universe as well.

General Howell- I admire u'r persistence Lotor. How would u like u'r planet to join the Alliance?

Prince Lotor- That was my reason for contacting U. I wish for this planet to join the Alliance.

General Howell- Great Lotor. The planets will be holding a Summit Meeting on Planet Arus tomorrow & wish for u to attend.

Prince Lotor- I'd luv to attend, but the distance.

General Howell- Go down to u'r Father's toom & there should be a wormhole key which will quickly transport u here to Arus. It will be quick & safer for u to come to Arus.

Prince Lotor- Thank u so much General. I hope to see u there.

General Howell- Later, u'r majesty.

In the Castle Of Lions, Koran & the Voltron Force is on the Comm. monitor speaking with Commander Hawkins.

Commander Hawkins- Koran, I've contacted u to inform u of Prince Lotor's wish for his planet to join the Alliance. He's returned to the Denubian Galaxy in search of his Home Planet known as Aden.

Princess Allura- I remember my father speaking a lot about the Kingdom of Aden & all of it's riches. He was good friends with King Rokar who had once ruled that planet.

Koran- Until he died at the hands of Zarkon.

Commander Hawkins- Well, Lotor had safely made it to Aden & will be crowned as ruler of the planet in a couple weeks.

Keith- I don't like the idea of him being in charge of a planet.

Commander Hawkins- Keith, I do rest assure u that Prince Lotor is not the son of King Zarkon. Lotor found out from his Grandmother & Father & Mother's spirit in the toom that he was stolen from them. Queen Altor was pregnant with Lotor at the time of her capture.

Lance- That's some low-down shit Zarkon & Haggar could do. An innocent child taken from their family to commit evil deeds. I can imagine how mad Lotor must be.

Commander Hawkins- Yes, not only that, but he wished to preserve his planet, as well as others, so that's why he wants to join the Alliance.

Koran- That's great for Lotor to do. We welcome his offer to help not only his planet, but making our's strong as well.

Commander Hawkins- Tomorrow is our Summit Meeting which is being held on u'r planet. Lotor & Merla will be in attendance. There is much to discuss.

Koran- Oh great. Tell Lotor thanks.

Monitor turns off.

Koran- Lotor & Merla along with their guests will be arriving on Planet Arus tomorrow. However, they will be coming here thru a wormhole instead of their ships, due to the distance & safety reasons.

Keith- Koran, I'm not falling for this. Lotor may be out of Zarkon's clutches, but once he's established himself on that ritzy planet of his, he will resume his evil ways.

Lance- I very much doubt that Keith. I'm sorry, but I have to not agree with u this time.

Princess Allura- Lotor seemed rather sincere & compassionate the last time I was with him. He's changed Keith.

Keith- And u'r actually sticking up for him after all he's done to u & u'r people Princess.

Princess Allura- His mistakes were no fault of his own, Keith. I understand u'r beef with him, but the both of u need to stop this feuding. I wish for u two to join hands, make peace with one another, & put all u'r problems with each other aside u. U'r skills, teamwork, & leadership combined will be a great asset. I'm Princess & I order this tomorrow out of u.

Keith- Princess, I refuse to join forces with that tyrant.

Lance- Keith, the Princess was right. U'r personal grudges will keep this tyrade with Lotor going. Lotor is no longer a danger to us & now wishes to join forces. I admire him for what he's doin.

Pidge- I have to see him tomorrow for myself too see if he can be trusted..

Hunk- He's finally found his way home.

Princess Allura- We must welcome Prince Lotor here tomorrow. Now I must go to perform my administrative duties.

Keith- Leave that to me Princess, cuz right now, I don't think u are in the state just to fly Blue Lion, but handle u'r duties.

Lance- Now Keith, wait a minute. Why are u now doubting her? I'm afraid u'r being too serious & hard on her. U've always supported the Princess. Stripping her of her Blue Lion was bad enuff. I don't understand what the beef could be about, unless it's over the Princess.

Koran- U two need to stop bickering. I don't think Keith has to worry about Lotor bothering the Princess, cuz I take it that Queen Merla will one day become his queen.

Princess Allura- For real?

Pidge- Yes, I'm afraid so.

Koran- He may have lusted for u Princess, but I'm afraid all this time he's been gone from the Deubian Galaxy, roaming Planet Earth, & now settling on Planet Aden, Queen Merla is the one who's been in his corner & Lotor has realized this.

Keith- But how? Lotor only wanted to be with the Princess.

Koran- I can't spread rumors, because I don't want none of it to get back to Queen Merla. It's to remain a secret until Lotor makes the request himself.

Hunk- What's the big secret?

Koran- Well, the Commander stated that Prince Lotor wishes to marry Queen Merla & plans to propose to her at his Coronation Ball.

Princess Allura gets shocked & leaves the room going toward King Alfor's toom.

Princess Allura is in the toom speaking with her Mother & Father.

King Alfor- My daughter, I know what brings u here.

Queen Arene- I understand that u've been goin thru a state of confusion & sense a loss of power within yourself.

Princess Allura- (Cries) Father, my life just doesn't seem the same for me any more. Keith no longer allows me to fly Blue Lion & it seems like I don't have control over the affairs of this planet any more. Was I wrong to save Lotor?

King Alfor- Daughter, u did the most bravest & rightful thing by rescuing Prince Lotor from Zarkon. Not only showing u'r kindness & gratitude to him, but also your people. U've forgiven him for his past evil deeds & now seen what he's been thru on Planet Doom.

Princess Allura- Zarkon wasn't much of a Father & never took time to luv Lotor and I often wondered about his mother. For some reason, when I've recalled the times he's kidnapped me, I began to feel that something was missing from his life.

King Alfor- Lotor has indeed had so much missing from his life & is now on Planet Aden regaining back what he's lost. U have to respect & admire him my daughter.

Princess Allura- Oh yes, I do, but also have something crossed over in me.

Queen Arene- I see my daughter that u are unsure of u'r situation with Keith.

Princess Allura- Mother, Keith has been way too serious with me & seemed to have lost faith. I've been hurt & am afraid of losing him.

Queen Arene- Ally, u will never lose Keith as a friend. He's right now not understanding things too well & probably has to see things for himself. U may lose him romantically, but Keith will always be here for u my darling, Allura. U too were meant to be close friends, but if he decides that u'r both not meant to be partners, u must be willing to accept that. U may not be partners, but u two will retain u'r friendship. Keith will always look out for u.

Princess Allura- But I still luv Keith.

King Alfor- Daughter, I shall leave this to u to deal with.

Princess Allura- Thanks, Father.

Princess Allura is walking toward her garden & is suddenly stooped by Keith.

Keith- Princess, what's wrong, I hate to see u upset, but we do need to talk.

Princess Allura- Outside?

Keith- Sounds good to me.

Keith & Allura are outside at the garden.

Keith- Princess, I hate to break this to u, but I feel that right now it's best for us. I still do luv u Allura with all my heart, but I also wish to still retain our friendship.

Princess Allura- What's goin on Keith?

Keith- Princess, I'm sorry I had to pull u from Blue Lion. It was totally wrong on my part, but it may still be best at this time that u not fly it, because I don't want Jarius to get a hold of u again. I hate that man for everything he's done. So please don't take it wrong. It's only for u'r safety. As ruler of this planet, u'r so much needed by u'r people & if something happened to u, u'r planet will be in shambles.

Princess Allura- Well, I do miss flying my lion, Keith, but I guess I now understand. I must remain elsewhere as a need of leading my forces.

Keith- Princess, u'r starting to sound like somebody I know, but I hate to break this to u & I hope u'r never hurt by this & am willing to move on. Princess, as far as a suitable husband for u'r future, I'm afraid things wouldn't work between us & I see that things have been rather tense with us now.

Princess Allura- But Keith, what could possibly be wrong?

Keith- I'll always luv, protect, & remain true to u, but I'm afraid our relationship works better if we're close friends.

Princess Allura- Why? I thought me & u were meant for each other.

Keith- Yes, but as friends and besides, I wouldn't be able to commit to u anyway. I feel there's somebody out there who can give u more than I can.

Princess Allura- Are u talking about Lotor? He's taken Keith & if I've heard correctly, he may be getting engaged to Queen Merla. Lotor's never been an option.

Keith- But he could change his mind, Princess. I always had feelings for u, but could never admit them. Why? I don't know, but it's not Lotor who had me thinking. It's lately Princess, that I just think something's missing from what we've had goin on.

Princess Allura is crying on Princess Romelle's shoulder in her bedroom. She's at first heartbroken over the breakup with Keith, but is comforted by both her cousin & Nanny when she walks in.

Princess Allura- (Cries) Why did this have to happen? Why would Keith do this to me?

Princess Romelle- It's alright, Princess, but from what I've been observing, my opinion of this is, that u both are a great team together, but as far as romance, it wouldn't work.

Princess Allura- (Cries) I just don't understand my life any more. Why am I a Princess? Why couldn't I have been a Space Explorer like the rest of my friends from Planet Earth. There's never anything in my life. I've missed out on everything sitting in this castle. One thing I've liked about Blue Lion was getting out to explore beneath the stars. That lion was part of me & Keith has took it away from me, cuz of that bastard Jarius. I would just luv to kill him.

Princess Romelle- Don't we all want to get that monster.

Princess Allura- I've never left this planet & am sheltered in this castle by Koran & Nanny. I luv Nanny & Koran, but they treat me like a child & run my life. They insist on making decisions on the welfare of this planet. I need to stand on my own two feet. And when I cum to think about it, Keith never stands up to them for me. Maybe our breakup was meant to be Romelle. What I want for myself right now are new experiences. I'd luv to travel under the stars in a fancy spaceship & explore unknown worlds. I'm tired of the diplomatic affairs & stressful duties. I wish to attend parties, drink wine, & experience opportunities I've never experienced in my life. Keith hasn't given me that.

Princess Romelle- Well, that tells u something. Maybe u should find a handsome, man to show u a new way of life & will treat u right. Someone who will show u great affection & luv.

Princess Allura- Who can possibly do that for me. Nanny is on my case all the time to marry a Prince, but everyone I've come across has been an asshole.

Princess Romelle- Damn, I can't believe u'r cursing, Ally (laughs), but u'v made a point. I've met other Princes in this galaxy who have been nuthin but pricks. Good ones too. Lotor sometimes wasn't as bad as they were.

Princess Allura- U'r kidding. (Laughs, while crying) I can't believe u'r saying that about Lotor after all u went thru with him on Planet Doom.

Princess Romelle- That's because at the time, I never understood what was goin on with Lotor. I hated Lotor for all the things he had done, but still always found him to be the most beautiful creature I've seen in this galaxy.

Princess Allura- Romelle, I do agree with ya on that one. I admit that I've always found that man magically attractive, but was turned off by his arrogant & ruthless attitude. I so much hated him & blew him off everytime he'd stalk & try to kidnap me. After a while, he laid off of it a little. I feel like for some reason that I had something to do with his change of heart at times. When he would put himself in harm's way just to rescue me, I could sense that he was developing genuine feelings for me.

Princess Romelle- I feel for u on that subject.

Princess Allura- Deep inside myself, I also felt something for him. (Laughs) He built a little temple on that one planet just for me. All them times he chased after me. I look back & just laugh at him. Lotor looked so cute when he would pursue his conquests. Ever since he got wise & stood up to Zarkon by leaving me, changed his ways, & now is making a life for himself, I'm beginning to admire & respect him so much. I'm glad he's not the son of that evil King Zarkon afterall.

Princess Romelle- Would u now think about a romantic relationship with him now that he's changed.

Princess Allura- I sure would. Are u joking? Now, he's pledged to Queen Merla, so I've lost in that ballfield. (Cries) I've lost him. Why did I so much get hateful with him all the times I did. I should've just somehow forced him to stay on my planet & leave Doom's forces to be with me. If he's pursuing his desires to be with me, he must have a lust of affection for me. Lotor wouldn't treat me horrible as I thought. He's the type who would luv, comfort, & want to be with me forever.

Princess Romelle- Well, we all make mistakes, but Allura, he's just gettin engaged to Merla, not married. U know Lotor does luv u & is still head over heels as he's always been. I think u would have a better chance with him.

Princess Allura- Thank u so much for adding that glimpse into my life. (Laughs) I sure can't wait to see his cute little butt coming thru that wormhole tomorrow.

Princess Romelle- Me either. I can't believe for once in our life, we can't wait to see Lotor.

Nanny- (Walks In) Are u girls in there talkin about boys? Prencess, now u know it's u'r duty to marry a Prence. Don't u forget that?

Princess Allura- Well, it just might happen Nanny, but he won't break my heart.
