

Voltron/Snoop Dogg Crossover Story by Princess Iris
Chapter 2: Another Planet

Week Later.....

Prince Lotor safely has done left Planet Arus onto a journey through space surrounded by many stars & passing by many Planets. He was pretty relaxed in his chambers drinkin his wine & being accompanied by the female servant who took the initiative to travel with him. Lotor will still goin thru issues of a broken heart as far as Allura.

Female Servant- (Walks up to Lotor with concern) Are u okay sire? U seem really down & look like u've been cryin ever since we've been on this ship. Do u want me top get u anything to eat? I've noticed that u haven't ate much in a couple days.

Prince Lotor- So, did u come along with me to be my nurse. How thoughtful? (Is weeping with tears in his eyes) I'm not hungry right now. I've got too much on my mind that I can't get out of it.

Female Servant- So u still can't get over u'r obsession with Ally? U should be relieved right now Lotor now that u'r away from the stress. Look at what u have now. U don't have to deal with u'r Father & the constant rejection from the Princess.

Prince Lotor- U'r right. I can't understand why I'm here ballin my eyes out. Lady, I'm feelin so relaxed & relieved that I don't have to work for my father. It feels good to be back out seeing the universe again & the many galaxies like I was doin when I was conquerin planets. This time, my journey has some meaning. I'm out here enjoying myself & relaxin instead of conquerin many planets only to turn the riches over to my father.

Female Servant- Would u ever want to go back to conquerin planets for u'r own riches.

Prince Lotor- Not another day in my life would I want to do such wickedness. Ever since I've left the chaotic environment which I once come from, I feel a stronger sense of heart & now a lot of shame & guilt.

Female Servant- I always thought from the moment I saw u that something was eating away u'r soul.

Prince Lotor- (Cries) I can't believe I've done the things I've done only to please my father. I can't bring back the lives I've taken away from many, erase my mistakes, & give people back their planets.

Female Servant- I've never seen u cry Lotor. (Puts arm around him & caresses his back)

Prince Lotor- I have a good reason to cry. Do u know what it's like to be humiliated, hated, disrespected, & shunned by so many people? Not by the Alliance, Planet Arus, Voltron, & Allura, but mainly u'r own Planet Doom. When I come to think about it, nobody has shown me luv on Planet Doom. They show me so much disrespect that they won't let me live. My Father has no luv for me & often wishes I'd disappear. He never has good words to say. Everybody in the many galaxies fear, distrust, & show hate toward me, thanks to my Father. Princess Allura hates me, because of my Father. U don't know what I've felt for her. I love her so much & would do anything for her. My chances with her are lost forever, because my father made me out to be his instrument of evil & destruction.

Female Servant- U can always change & reinvent yourself my young Prince.

Prince Lotor- By the way miss, what's u'r name? I've never asked.

Female Servant- I'm Lamora. Get over yourself Lotor. U can change & this is one reason for u'r journey. To find yourself.

Perfect Stranger On A Perfect Planet

Prince Lotor- U are right Lamora. I've forgotten for a minute there as to why I left the world around me. I'm gonna take advantage of what I got & find Lotor. (Walks to his throne & leans back in a daydreamin like pose) I'm so glad u'v came.

Lamora- I have something for u Lotor.

Prince Lotor- (Leans up from his chair) What?

Lamora- Some of the servants had packed some keepsakes of value with u'r belongings when we was back on Doom. We snuck into u'r Father's chambers & swiped a lot of pics & photo albums that would be of interest to u to look at.

Prince Lotor- (Raises eyebrows & eyes widen) I've never seen them before.

Lamora- (Opens one of the albums & points to photo) Is this by any chance u when u was a baby? (Points to woman in pic) This must be u'r mother. She's very beautiful & so much resembles u.

Prince Lotor- (Stares at pic then picks it up with his hand) My gosh!! I've forgotten how beautiful my Mother was. According to Haggard & my Father, she left us when I was only 5 yrs old. What I never could understand was why she would want to leave me with my father never to return back for me. I can remember when I was a little boy, how she would luv & nurture me, read me bedtime stories, & shield me from the wrath of my Father. That's who taught me so much about luv. I miss her so dearly & think now that this is the time to search for her. I wish for us to be a part of each other again.

Lamora- She looks like she's a different sort of person from u'r father., In fact, she looks almost like Princess Allura. It's no wonder u are so much in luv with her & have the need for her.

Prince Lotor- U'r definitely right on that one. I have so many nightmares of Allura & I a lot of times will see my Mother. My mother tells me about how she was Queen on another planet & my Father took over, taking her for his slave, then making her his Queen. I remember how he use to beat & rape her so badly. I hate my Father for what he's done to her & causing her to walk out of my life. That's why I must've wanted to kill him & take his throne for myself.

Lamora- How do u know if she could've walked out if she luv'd u so much?

Prince Lotor- I don't know, but I'm out on a quest to find out.

(Spaceship Comm comes on)

Lamora- (Looks up at radar screen) Sire, it looks like we're approachin a planet.

Prince Lotor- (Shakes head & opens eyes) Oh shit! I've been here in this ship not knowing how far I've traveled. (Looks at Planet out the cockpit)

Lamora- What Planet is that? It sure don't look like we're in the Deubian galaxy anymore.

Prince Lotor- Damn, that planet is so blue & white. We've got to land. This ship needs more power.

Down below at the Kennedy Space Center in Florida, some astrologers notice Prince Lotor's ship.

Dave- Ron, are u lookin at the radar from space. There's this weird humungous ship about to land.

Ron- (Looks at ship) I've never seen a ship that looks like that before unless it was a Science Fiction movie or cartoon.

Dave- It's silverish blue & has a big skull face in the front. I've seen a ship like that on a cartoon I watched.

Ron- I don't like the looks of that ship. It looks like UFO's or alien spacecraft. Please notify the U.S. Dept. of Defense about the situation

Meanwhile, at the U.S Pentagon, dispatchers are gettin distress call from the Kennedy Space center.

Billie- Mike, we're gettin a electronic communication from Kennedy Space Center.

Mike- (Turns Comm. on)

Ron- (Appears on screen) Mike, we notice a strange spacecraft comin in from space. We've never seen anything like it & it's freakin us out! Look!

Mike- (Screams) What the hell is that?! Launch missiles & blast that thing out of the sky. Fire!!!!!!!!!!

Back up in the Spaceship, Prince Lotor is gettin ready for landing when all of a sudden.....

Prince Lotor- (Screams) Ahhhhhhhh! Lamora we've been hit by huge missiles, but from where? I don't know. Voltron couldn't have followed us all the way here!!

Lamora- It's not Voltron Lotor!! Besides why would they come after u anyway? The missiles looked like they came from the surface's direction.

Prince Lotor's Space ship is spinning downwards toward Planet Earth.

Prince Lotor- Lamora, pleaz hold onto something. It looks like we're goin to crash land & have a long way down!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!

Lamora & Prince Lotor both scream as ship falls. Ship finally crash lands into some trees in back of someone's huge house in Diamond Bar, California. It is sunrise & Snoop Dogg & his family are woke up from the racket.

Snoop Dogg- (Screams) What the fuck was that?

Shante- I don't know, but it was loud enough to scare the living daylights out of the whole neighborhood.

Snoop's kids run into their room screaming.

Kids- Mom, Dad, what was that?

Snoop & his family look out their bedroom window overlooking the back yard.

Snoop Dogg- What is that big ass hoopty in the trees?

Corde- Should we go outside & look Dad?

Snoop Dogg- Yes, but not without the Magnum.

Outside, Prince Lotor & Lamora hop out the ship.

Lamora- Where are we Lotor?

Prince Lotor- I dunno, but it doesn't look like we're on Planet Doom or Arus anymore.

Lamora- Look at that place. Is that a weird lookin castle with a concrete pond?

Prince Lotor- I don't know, but let's check this place out? (Him & Lamora walk up toward pool crossing Basketball Court)

Lamora- What is this concrete rectangular-shaped thing with them hoop things on a board?

Prince Lotor- I don't know, but it's something we've never seen before. Look inside that shed over there & we may find out.

Lamora- (Looks at bench) Hey look at this bench Lotor. It's a human. (Points to Snoop's pic on the bench from his Doggfather Album) He must be the king at this castle alright.

Out of nowhere, they hear a loud voice. Snoop is holding his gun in his hand.

Snoop Dogg- Yes, I'm the king of this castle. What yall doin on my property?

Lamora & Prince Lotor look up.

Prince Lotor- Hey Lamora there he is & he doesn't seem happy at all.

Snoop Dogg- (Screams & freaks out when he sees Prince Lotor) What the shit? Ahhhhhh! It can't be!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!! (faints)

Lamora- Lotor we need to go over to see if he's alright.

Prince Lotor- (Kneels down toward Snoop & touches his shoulder) Hey, are u okay?

Cordell- Hey what u doin touchin my Daddy?

Prince Lotor- (Looks up at Cordell) I'm not goin to hurt your father little boy.

Cordell- I'm not a little boy. And why do u have blue skin & long white hair?

Prince Lotor- I'm from another planet.

Cordell- Damn, u have yellow eyes!

Prince Lotor- Right now let's get u'r Daddy inside. (Picks up & carries Snoop Dogg)
