Chapter 3: New Day in Paradise

Snoop Dogg/Voltron FanFiction Story-Part Three

Snoop Dogg Meets Prince Lotor

New Day In Paradise

Back on Planet Doom, King Zarkon is practically trippin off his throne.

King Zarkon- What?!! My slaves couldn't have escaped!

Soldier- I'm sorry Sire. I've went to the quarters & Harem only to notice many slaves missing. Especially females & ones from Planet Arus.

King Zarkon- Where's my scoundrel good for nuthin son been? I've not seen or heard from him in a couple weeks. He should've reported to me when he returned from his unsuccessful attempt to defeat Voltron & conquer Planet Arus.

Soldier- Come to notice. I haven't seen or heard from him in a couple weeks either. I've also notice his Spacecraft missing. To tell u the truth, Sire, ever since he's supposedly disappeared, so have many slaves come up missing!

King Zarkon- No!!!! This can't be happening!!

Haggar, The Witch walks in.

Haggar- I'm afraid it's happening sire. When we returned from Planet Arus that day, he was actin awefully strange like he could've been up to somethin.

King Zarkon- That does it!!!!

King Zarkon, Haggar, & the Soldier walks to Prince Lotor's Chambers & is shocked as to what they see.

Soldier- Everything in this place is gone, including his furnishings.

Haggar- I knew we should've kept our eyes on him.

King Zarkon- So he's decided to just up & leave like that!!!! Well, I will see about that!!

Soldier- In a way, let's say it's good riddance. He's always screwed up our plans puttin his own two cents in. All of our missions fail, cuz of him.

King Zarkon- I shall notify the top Drule Commanders about my son's disappearance. When he returns, I shall make him suffer dangerous consequences.

On Planet Arus at the Castle Of Lions, the Voltron Force & friends from Pollux are in the Dining Room enjoyin themselves.

Pidge- Can u actually believe that we no longer have to put up with Lotor?

Lance- I say it's great. We haven't had an attack for a couple weeks from that menace.

Princess Romelle- It seems like we've been having it peaceful since that monster has uped & left.

Prince Bandor- Now, we can celebrate.

Keith- I wouldn't be throwin no Good Riddance Party yet, cuz we can't trust Lotor. And there's still our main obstacle. King Zarkon & all the rest of them cronies on Planet Doom could be plannin somethin right now.

Hunk- Man, I bet King Zarkon is havin a shit fit if he finds out Prince Lotor has uped & vanished.

Sven- On the other hand, they could be also happy that he is gone, cuz not too many peoples on Planet Doom thought anything of him anyway.

Koran walks in.

Koran- Keith, we are gettin an electronic communication on the monitor from Planet Doom.

(Everybody goes to Castle Controls & King Zarkon pops up on the screen)

Hunk- It's Zarkon!

Lance- What does that creep want with us?

Koran- What do u want with us, Zarkon? Release u'r slaves this instant!!!

King Zarkon- Why should I release what I have? Half of my slaves from Planet Arus have escaped & I personally hold u responsible. Also, have u seen my beloved nincumpoop anywhere?

Princess Allura- No, we haven't heard from him since he came here with Haggar?

Keith- Why should u ask us anyway? Like we care about where u'r tyrant son is anyway.

King Zarkon- It doesn't matter anyway if he comes up missin, cuz now it will be easier to invade u'r miserable little planet & destroy Voltron. My son has been a failure & now I won't have to worry about him failing me anymore!!!(Laughs) All of u along with Lotor shall perish & u'r planet is now mine forever.

Koran- U won't get away with this Zarkon!!!!

(King Zarkon disappears from the monitor)

Back on Planet Earth, Prince Lotor & his mistress, Lamora have found themselves in the home of Celebrity, Snoop Dogg. Snoop Dogg is waking up after being passed out for a couple hours. Lamora is nursing him back to normal.

Snoop Dogg- (Waking up) Man, I just had the most strangest dream.

Lamora- There there now. U should be gettin better soon.

Snoop Dogg- What the hell just happened to me?

Lamora- U went into a state of shock. That was all.

Snoop Dogg- (Opens eyes & is shook up) Hey, who are u? U were in the dream. I had this dream that I went outside & seen u with this blue skinned dude with white long hair. I wonder who he is. He seems so familiar, but I never thought I'd see somebody lookin like him in real life.

Lamora- I don't know how to explain things to u, cuz I notice that u earthlings live a different life than us folks in the Denubian Galaxy.

Snoop Dogg- Where are u from anyway? And who's that dude with u if u don't mind me askin? Where's my family?

Lamora- Don't worry. U'r wife & kids are fine. U have some cute kids & a wonderful wife. She's so calm & laid back. Sort of has a few of the same qualities of our Princess on the Planet where I'm from?

Snoop Dogg- So the both of u are aliens?

Lamora- Well, I guess we can say so. My home planet is Arus. It's located in the Quadrant section of the Denubian galaxy. My friend who is flying the ship is named Prince Lotor, the Crown Prince of Planet Doom. He had decided to leave Planet Doom to explore the galaxy. I was a slave to his Father, the evil King Zarkon on Planet Doom. Lotor wanted to leave his turmoilous life behind to find his purpose. He helped me to escape & I took it upon myself to be his companion on his journey.

Snoop Dogg- Wait a minute. Is this some kind of joke? How can this be? I can remember when I was a teenager that I and my 2 brothers would be in front of the television watchin this cartoon called Voltron. It came out during the 80's, but it was a fuckin cartoon. U can't tell me cartoons can come to life. Prince Lotor was a character on the show. How could the muthafucka be real? (Laughs)

Lamora- Don't know. I had no idea that we was a cartoon. Somebody from this planet must be observing everything that goes on in the Denubian Galaxy & turnin the action into a cartoon. How intriguing.

Snoop Dogg- It sure beats the hell out of me. I never thought in this day that Voltron was actually real.

Lamora- Voltron is real!!!! He's a mighty robot in our galaxy who defends the people from the evil Doom forces & Drule Empire.

Snoop Dogg- Then why is this muthafucka in my house. From what I remember, Prince Lotor was evil & wicked. I can't have that tyrant near my wife & kids.

Lamora- Well, he's not like that anymore. He's been that way & done the things he's done, because he was sent to do so by his Father.

Snoop Dogg- So what bought u all to Planet Earth?

Lamora- We were just roamin the universe & all of a sudden came across this planet. Lotor was drawn here by the beauty & decided to land here, but someone down here supposedly shot us out of the sky causin the ship to land where it landed.

Snoop Dogg- From what I've seen of him on the show, I'm pretty much afraid to trust him, but from what u are now tellin me, he must've decided to turn over a new leaf.

Lamora- Snoop, Lotor's mistakes were not his fault. He deserves better than where he's been.

Snoop Dogg- I feel u on that.

In the TV room, Prince Lotor is tellin Snoop's puppies about his story & where he's from. Snoop's wife, Shante is sittin off in a corner just shakin her head not knowin what to think.

Cori (Snoop's 7 yr old daughter)- So are u a Prince?

Prince Lotor- Yes. I'm the Crown Prince of this Planet called Doom.

Corde (Snoop's 13 yr old son)- Tell me about that Voltron guy.

Prince Lotor- He's a huge robot who protects all the good people from the bad peoples.

Corde- Do u like Voltron if u'r Prince of an evil Planet?

Prince Lotor- I hate to tell, but I use to hate Voltron & really wanted him defeated so badly. That was because my Father made me out to destroy him, but I've escaped that awful place & am free of him. I now luv Voltron. He's the tightest robot man had ever made. If I ever return to home, I will fight on the side of Voltron & one day bring the evil forces on my Planet to justice.

Shante- (Talks to herself) I can't believe that this shit is happening. I watched this cartoon called Voltron as a kid only to one day during my adult life come face to face with an actual character. (Looks over to Lotor) U'v got be lyin.

Prince Lotor- Kids I better have a word with u'r mother. It seems that she isn't takin this too well. (Walks over to Shante) Now if I have to, I can take u back to Planet Doom & turn u into one of my Harem chicks.

Shante- I refuse to go anywhere with u, cuz u'r a monster! I also want u to stay away from my husband & kids!

Prince Lotor- Hey I was only kiddin. (Smirks)

Snoop Dogg walk in the room & notices Prince Lotor messin with his wife.

Snoop Dogg- Hey why are u talkin like that with my wife muthafucka?

Prince Lotor- Hey, we are just havin a nice conversation. Just chill.

Cordell- Hey Daddy. I want him to stay. This guy is cool.

Snoop Dogg- He's goin too. Prince, I have decided to extend my hospitality to u by giving u the priviledge of stayin here in my home as long as u need to do so.

Prince Lotor- I thank u so much for u'r kindness. I'm lookin forward to gettin to know u. U'r kids here have told me all about u. (Offers Snoop a handshake) Hey, by the way I'm Prince Lotor, Crown Prince Of Planet Doom.

Snoop Dogg- (Shakes hands with Lotor) I'm Snoop Dogg. My real name is Calvin, but I'm best known as Snoop Dogg.

Back at the U.S Pentagon, the diplomats are meeting with the President Of the United States.

Officer Charles Gatewood- President Bush, we have summoned u here over a really important matter. Our Control Room Employees had received a distress call from astrologers at the Kennedy Space Center about a strange SpaceCraft which has supposedly crash landed possibly in the Southwest region of our nation.

President Bush- So we now have alien terrorists now? It look like I may have to recall some of the troops which I've sent over to Iraq & assign them to the Air Force Base in California to look into the matter.

Officer Gerald Watts- That won't be necessary Mr. President. Top officials at the Space Center state that they have notified this organization known as the Galaxy Alliance about the situation.

President Bush- Well, they better come up with some answers, because this country's already a target.

Officer T.J. Jennings- Ron at the center stated that it was a weird spaceship bearing a skull at the front of it. He stated that he seen the ship on a cartoon & never thought what was a cartoon would turn out to be reality.

Officer Charles Gatewood- We therefore had to look for ways on how to deal with this dilemma & found that there is a such place here on Earth as Galaxy Garrison which is where the Alliance is.

Officer Timothy Butler- The Space Center had sent them pics of the spacecraft & the Alliance seemed to recognize it.

President Bush- I never thought of a day in age when we would get invaded by Space Pirates,

Back at the Alliance, the Generals meet while looking at the photo of the ship.

General Howell- I can definitely say that Prince Lotor has somehow found his way to Planet Earth, but how?

General Thompson- Beats me, but we got to find out where on earth he could be hiding out. I do realize that the ship had crashed landed somewhere out in the California Desert.

General Howell- The President says he is sending troops to California in hopes that they could fill us in on what is going on.

The End Of Part Three-
