

Voltron/Snoop Dogg Crossover Story by Princess Iris
Chapter 4: Lotor's New Friend

Snoop Dogg/Voltron Fanfiction Story-Part Four

Back at Planet Doom, King Zarkon is furious, but planning an attack on Planet Arus. Queen Merla had sent a few of her dwarflings to spy on the forces of Planet Doom.

Male Servant- U'r highness, here's u'r wine & credit card bills. I've never seen one this high in longtime.

King Zarkon- Why is my wine bill so high?!!

Cossack- The fleet of ships is ready sire.

King Zarkon- Good! I shall have three seperate armadas out in the galaxy. One to attack Planet Arus, the other to attack Pollux, & another to search for Lotor, so I could have him bought back here to be executed. Nobody, not even Doom royals shall defy & especially betray me!

Cossack & Haggar walks in.

Haggar- I've made enough robeasts by the dozen to destroy each planet sire. (Laughs) The universe will one day be your's. In return for me helping u to succeed, I shall share the throne with u sire.

King Zarkon- Definitely old witch! I shall reward u well. In the meantime, I want Princess Allura captured. I shall make her my Queen as a way to payback Lotor for all his schemes against the empire.

Haggar- U sure know what's best sire. I can see the tormented look that would come on his face when he finds out about u marrying his Princess.

Back at Castle Of Lion Controls, Koran receives an unexpected comm from Galaxy Garrison.

Commander Hawkins- Koran come in.

Koran- Commander, I'm happy to hear from u. Is something wrong?

Commander Hawkins- Yes, indeed. We have a serious problem over here on Planet Earth.

Keith- What may that be?

Commander Hawkins- I've just been informed by Galaxy Garrison that Prince Lotor's Spacecraft has crash landed somewhere here on Planet Earth. However, there has been no reports of destruction.

Koran- Oh no. This isn't good. If Prince Lotor invades Planet Earth, it will be the end of us.

Keith- I wonder why Prince Lotor would want to go to Planet Earth anyway.

Commander Hawkins- Dunno. It's strange that he just all of a sudden out of no where would show up like this.

Koran- I don't think he will attack as he had informed us of him leaving the Doom Empire a few weeks ago. To tell u the truth, we haven't heard or had attacks from him since.

Keith- Lotor's had our work cut out.

Koran- Wait a minute, our satellite has spotted a Doomship.

Keith- Well, we know what that means.
To the lions.

Voltron force makes their way to the lions & flies toward the armada led by Cossack, The Terrible.

Cossack- Robotships fire at the lions!
Today is Doomsday!! (Laughs) Release Haggar's robeast!!!

Hunk- It's an armada!

Lance- And a robeast all at the same time.

Keith- I have a feeling that Zarkon may have his way, but we will see about that. Let's form Voltron. Activate interlocks, dynatherms, infracells up, megathrusters are go.

Voltron Force- Let's go Voltron Force!!!

Voltron begins to fight off ships, then robeast attacks from behind.

Keith- Team we're blowing the fleet away, but the robeast's got a hold of us!!!

Prince Bandor- (Comes in on the Lion Comm) Voltron Force come in!

Princess Allura- It's Prince Bandor!!!

Pidge- And we can't move! The robeast has us locked in!!

Prince Bandor- This isn't good. Doom ships are over here on Pollux attacking. What are we going to do?

Keith- Just do what the robots tell u to do & we'll be over there to assist.

On Planet Pollux, Prince Bandor & Princess Romelle along with some Polluxian people are being held hostage by Doommmites Nobles & robots.

King Zarkon's nephew, Jarius who is leading the attack on Pollux steps out of the ship. Sven is hiding in a closet of the Polluxian Castle.

Jarius- Well done soldiers. Zarkon will be pleased.

Princess Romelle- U may have us held as captives, but u will not get away with this. U will lose in the end!!

Jarius- U dare leave u'r voice to me Princess. I shall take u personally to be my pleasure slave & bride!!

Prince Bandor- U think so huh! U sound just like somebody we know!!!

Jarius- Are u talkin about my dimwit cousin? That's an insult. (Shots Bandor with stun gun)
Troops take them onto ship. I will deal with these royal captives when we get them onto the ship.

Behind closed doors, Sven is contacting Keith.

Sven- Voltron force come in!!!

Keith- We hear ya Sven, but our comms aren't transmitting too well.

Lance-This robeast has a grip on us.

On Cossack's ship

Cossacks-(Cackles) It looks like today, we make history. We're actually defeating Voltron.

Haggar- And not only that, but Jarius has captured many people from Planet Pollux along with both Prince Bandor & Princess Romelle. Zarkon shall be pleased.

Cossack- And we may by some chance capture Princess Allura if this keeps up. Prince Lotor's missing out.

Haggar - I don't care about Lotor! We've been victorious without him. When u come to think about it, he's been nuthin but an interference. We've always failed with him in charge & sometimes, he's gotten in the way when he's not been in charge.

Cossack- U got that right. Now that Lotor isn't here to protect his little Princesses from being harm'd, we can do whatever we want with them. (Laughs)

Back with Voltron.....

Keith- Team we have an idea.

Princess Allura- What may that be?

Keith- Princess & Hunk, I want u to seperate & attack the robeast from behind.

Blue & Yellow Lion seperate & attack from behind.

Hunk- Now let's see how u like it when we sneak up on u.

Princess Allura- We've got em', but we can't hold up much longer.

Robeast's arms are bitten off & it roars.

Keith- Yeah, were free! Good work team. Now let's finish him off! Fire laser beams!! Now, form blazing sword!

Voltron slices robeast in half & it explodes!

Haggar- No. I thought we had them.

Cossack- Zarkon will not happy about this at all.

Haggar- He shouldn't be too upset, because afterall, Jarius has succeeded with his mission on Pollux

Cossack- Let's head back to Castle Doom, so we can plan our next attack on Planet Arus.

Keith- There won't be a next time as long as we have Voltron. Let's head back to the Castle Of Lions! They've laid off on us for now.

On Planet Earth, Prince Lotor is in back of Snoop's house working on his Spacecraft chit chatting with Snoop.

Prince Lotor- (Repairing his ship) So u'r a musician eh?!!! I'll never forget about my mother tellin me when I was young about how her planet consisted of arts & good music. I've always wondered what a life of that would be like.

Snoop Dogg- My kids probably must've told u. I'm a famous rapper doin it West Coast style & keepin it gangsta.

Prince Lotor- (Puzzled) What does keepin it gangsta mean? Plus what is rap music?

Snoop Dogg- They must not do any of that stuff back where u come from. U have a lot to learn, but I'm goin to show u how we ride here in Californ-I-A.

Prince Lotor- Planet Doom doesn't do much of anything for entertainment except attack other planets for riches & slaves, have robeast battles in the arena. drink wine, & keep as harem full of women. To be honest with ya, I never found interest in seein chaos & pain when I was there. I had no choice but to see that everyday of my life. It's ashamed that I had to conform to my Father's standards and make a contribution to all the tragedies that took place. The only thing I ever cared for was the wine & women. I have the biggest harem in all of Denubian's history.

Snoop Dogg- I've seen how that prick bastard Father of your's is. He's worse than the boogie man himself. Why couldn't u just gotten yourself outta there a lot sooner?

Prince Lotor- I could've, but I had no allies to defend me as needed. I was raised around evil & therefore being evil was all I knew to be. I've done so many horrible things in the name of my Father that guilt has filled me up inside. I have the reputation of being known as the Prince From Hell, because of the awful things I've done.

Snoop Dogg- I already seen that for myself, but there's a such thing as being forgiven & making a change.

Prince Lotor- The dark atmosphere that surrounded me has made me the way I am. If I ever needed the Voltron Force to help me go against my Father, they would never do so, because they won't trust me. Them boys see me as a big coward who they so badly want to have bought to justice. Then there's my luv & future wife, Princess Allura. She hates me & therefore turns me down everytime. The pain of the life I've lived & constant rejections from Allura have tore me up so bad inside that it just broke me down so bad. I couldn't take the life of workin hard to please someone else only to get called a failure, put up with the abuses on Planet Doom & being humiliated by the Voltron Force.

Snoop Dogg- Is that why u uped & left?

Prince Lotor- I had to. I wanted to find a life of my own instead of being filled with sadness & guilt. The only way I could leave the pain I was enduring is get away from it, so that's what I did?

Snoop Dogg- Good for u. Now u can enjoy yourself, instead of having to deal with all that pain.

Prince Lotor- I've always heard these friends of mine, Commander Hazar & Dorma speak of Planet Earth. I never thought I'd one day wind up crash landin here.

Snoop Dogg- Well, u've landed in the right place. U mise well just make yourself at home here.

Prince Lotor- I was in my ship poutin over Allura & lookin at old photos of me when I was a child until Lamora all of a sudden informed me that we approachin a Planet. We then get blasted out of the sky & crash land here in your backyard. (Cracks up)

Snoop Dogg- (Smiles) I'm glad u crash landed into my backyard, even though it scared the shit out of me. (Pauses for a second) Hey, if u don't mind me askin, but is something botherin u?

Prince Lotor- (Blushes) Ummm...

Snoop Dogg- Come on now. Spit it out.

Prince Lotor- Snoop, have u ever been in luv with somebody so bad that it consumed u'r mind?

Snoop Dogg- U mean that u have come all this way & been ditched from that muthafucka for half a month & still can't quit thinkin about that chick? Man. (Laughs) From what I've seen of u, I've never seen a dude in my life be head over heels for one particular chick.

Prince Lotor- I luv her so much Snoop that I dream about her constantly in my mind & in my sleep. It hurts that she rejects me in the way she does.

Snoop Dogg- I hate to bring it to u, but with the many times u have stalked & attempted to take her captive, especially taking the forceful approach u do with her.

Prince Lotor-(Frowns) What are u talkin about? I luv Allura & would never harm her in anyway. I'll show her affection show great & she doesn't know it.

Snoop Dogg- No. What I mean is for example. U force it upon her with, "I'm going to make u be my bride." U not even givin that girl a chance to get to know u. U could just take that chick & find out she's not what u think she is. U just jumpin into things.

Prince Lotor- I don't jump into things, but I want her to marry me & rule the kingdom beside me as my Queen. I'll do anything for her, even if it means puttin myself in harm's way to see that she's not harmed.

Snoop Dogg- See, that's what I'm talkin about. U'r actions & way of approach is what's chasin her off. U could probably even have been on the side of good & she still would've avoided u'r ass by all means.

Prince Lotor- (Bends down & cries)

Snoop Dogg- Are u cryin? I've never known u to cry.

Prince Lotor- I luv her so much Snoop. She's so beautiful, spirited, brave, loving, & happy. Allura looks so peaceful & full of life. No woman could bring me the joy that she can.

Snoop Dogg- (Shakes head & laughs) Man, one chick. U are all rowled up over one female. I've heard that at least 75% of female population who knows u be droolin over u'r ass & would do anything to get to u. There's other women out there & u most likely will find one prettier than that Princess who will gladly take u. Besides aren't u still goin with that pink-haired chick who wears the blue lipstick? I thought u two were married.

Prince Lotor- U mean Queen Merla?

Snoop & Prince Lotor are still outside chillin & Shante walks in.

Shante- Hey baby, I don't mean to interrupt u, but we need to talk.

Snoop- Honey, Can u please give me a second?

Shante- There is no second. It's important & I prefer we have this conversation alone.

Snoop Alright u win. (Looks to Lotor) If it's okay, my wife needs to see me.

Prince Lotor- I understand. (Talks to himself) Women. She sounds like Merla.

In Snoop's kitchen, Shante is gettin on Snoop's case.

Snoop Dogg- What's wrong baby? Is somethin botherin u?

Shante- Yes and u should know damn well what it is Cal.

Snoop Dogg- What? Are u talkin about Prince?

Shante- I can't believe u decided to make friends with that creep & let him stay in our house with us. U know how he is. I sure don't want to find ourselves here one minute, then on Planet Doom as his Father's slaves.

Snoop Dogg- He's not what u think? Me & him have had a long conversation. He's cool.

Shante- He's evil as any of them come. Look at all the places he's conquered & innocent lives he has taken. He's a tyrant worse than his Father.

Snoop Dogg- That man is nuthin like his Father. He's been thru a lot in his life & wanting a change.

Shante- How do u know? He can't be trusted & not too good at keepin his promises. The man has no feelings or remorse Snoop. I hate for u to one day be influenced by him & become something u weren't meant to become.

Snoop Dogg- Baby please calm down. That's not gonna happen.

Shante- Look, I'm giving u the ultimatum right now. It's either he leaves or I along with the kids.

Snoop Dogg- Hey wait a minute. Please give me a chance. If I had the feeling he was up to something, I wouldn't be messin with him would I? I'd never do anything that would possibly put u & the kids' life at stake.

Shante- Okay u win. I'll go along with this, but if somethin happens to u or any of us or someone else, because of his destruction, I will notify the Alliance & he will be arrested. So he better be on his P's & Q's.

Snoop Dogg- Oh, he will. Don't u worry about it.

(Snoop hugs & gives his wife the smoochie)
