

Voltron/Snoop Dogg Crossover Story by Princess Iris
Chapter 6: Kickin' Back

At the Castle Of Lions, Princess Allura & Queen Merla are sitting up in the Control Room with Koran.

Princess Allura- I'm so worried about the boys. I wonder if they're alright.

Queen Merla- I hope so myself. It's been a while. Hopefully, Jarius hasn't found them, cuz I hate to imagine what he's do to them.

Keith- Castle Controls come in.

(Keith comes in on the monitor)

Koran- Oh thank gosh u guys are alright. The Princess, Merla & I have been worried sick.

Keith- We've made it successfully Koran, with all of us in one piece & both Romelle & Bandor. I have them with me & have decided to bring them with us to Arus to stay for the time being. Pollux isn't safe for anybody to be. I don't trust Jarius whatsoever. We never know what he has up his sleeve, but we will not let him destroy Pollux, plus we will have to make a trip back to Doom to rescue his slaves.

Queen Merla- Sounds like our plan had worked.

Sven- However, I don't know whether or not we should go back in the same disguises. We had to tell Cossack that we were taking Romelle & Bandor to Tyrus to do slave labor & Jarius honeymoon site.

The Voltron force, Prince Bandor, & Princess Romelle walk in the control room. Everybody goes in the observation room.)

Princess Allura- Shoooo. I'm glad u guys made it back safely.

Queen Merla- Now that we succeeded in our mission, I would like to go out to my starcutter to check for messages on my Comm. Control.

Princess Romelle- Merla, I'm coming with u.

Princess Allura- Me too, cousin.

(Queen Merla, Princess Romelle, & Princess Allura walk outside Castle to the Starcutter.)

Queen Merla- I have to check my messages, cuz I haven't checked them in days. Like anybody would have any reason to call me. It's just that I'm worried about something.

Princess Romelle- U sure look worried. What's bothering u?

Queen Merla- It's just that I don't feel the same. Romelle, when u luv somebody & haven't seen them in a while, worry takes over u'r mind. Telepathic communication just can't be done. It also worries me that someone I have lust for could be so far away on Planet Earth & not took the time to send me a line.

Princess Allura- Speaking of him, I'm almost beginning to get worried about him myself. It's been peaceful, but something about him has for some reason made me feel that something is missing from my life. Why? I hope u don't get offended by this either.

Queen Merla- That's okay Princess, but it surprises me that u'r actually worried about the fool.

Princess Romelle- It surprises me too, especially after all that monster's done.

Queen Merla- (Checks messages) No. I've not got one message. (Leans over on console looking down)

Princess Romelle- Merla, it's okay. Don't cry.

Queen Merla- I can't say that we were never together, cuz we did get engaged, but then it was broken off. We had decided just to be good friends, but Lotor is still a part of me.

Princess Allura- U know, even though he at numerous times pursued me, I can't believe I'm actually saying this.

Princess Romelle- Allura, u have to be joking?

Princess Allura- I've been at peace & have a thang goin on with Keith, but now a part of me is missing a man who chases me. I hope I wasn't responsible for him just wanting to up & leave. However, I'm gonna deal with it & be happy that I don't have to worry about him stalkin me anymore.

Princess Romelle- I feel the same way, cousin. I'm just nosey. That's all.

Queen Merla- I wonder what he's up to on Planet Earth. I'm gonna send him a message. He'll probably answer me, cuz when he left he told me that I'm the only friend in this galaxy that he can trust & talk to. So, I make it my routine to check in with him.

In Los Angelas, CA on Planet Earth, Snoop Dogg & Prince Lotor are on Snoop's back patio chillin. Snoop is petting his pitbull, while pulling a bag of weed out.

Snoop Dogg- Time for me to have one of my neccessities.

Prince Lotor- (Eyes are opened wide) What's in that big plastic bag?

Snoop Dogg- Oh, it's called weed. I use it to put inside the blunts I roll up.

Prince Lotor- (Sighs) Blunts. Hmmm. I have so much to discover on this lovely planet.

Snoop Dogg- Hey, wanna try one Prince?

Prince Lotor- Okay. Why not?

Lamora- (walks up to them back from spaceship) Hey Prince, thought u might need this. (Hands him bottle of wine & wine glass)

Prince Lotor- Oh thank u. I can't believe I've went as long as I did without chuggin on this. Snoop, since u are lettin me sample some of u'r specialties, how about tryin some of my Tyrusian Red Lava wine. Let's say I've imported it over here from the Denubian Galaxy. It's one of the main wines we drink over on both Planet Doom & Tyrus.

Snoop Dogg- I wouldn't mind tryin a sample. Alize, Gin, Malibu is what I can handle, but I'll sip on sum Tyrusian wine to light up my candle.

Prince Lotor- Lamora, is there an extra wine glass?

Snoop Dogg- Hey, don't worry about it. I got my own. It's a pimp cup. (Hands Prince Lotor a blunt)

Prince Lotor- Hey, I got one of them too. In fact, I have many of them things. (Lights up blunt & takes a hit from it) Damn, this is some shit. I'm liking this. I wish they had some of this back at home. I'd smoke this shit up all the time.

Snoop Dogg- Ya know I be smokin trees all the time. I'm a well known user of this shit.

Prince Lotor- Well, it looks like I'll be too. I'm feelin like I'm so up top, but at the same time, relaxed.

Snoop Dogg- (Sips on the Red Lava) Ahhh! Shit! Damn that is some strong ass shit.

Snoop Dogg & Prince Lotor are both outside like 2 high kites flyin in the sky, but havin difficulty with stayin up.

Snoop Dogg- Prince, why didn't u warn me before givin me some shit like that? I haven't drank, but a couple sips & feel like I'm bout' to have the hangover from so many stories high. (Giggles)

Prince Lotor- (He's in his daydreamin pose, but this time not daydreamin. His eyes have a black tint around them.) Man, I've never felt like this in all my days. That doesn't matter, cuz I'm wantin another blunt.

Lamora- (Interrupts the fun) Lotor, u have a Comm. call from the ship controller.

Prince Lotor- I hope it's not my Father. Fuck him. He can suck dick.

Lamora- Man sire. U are sure learnin some new words. I've never heard u speak that way before. Plus, u seemed to have lost u'r marbles. It's not Zarkon. It's Queen Merla.

Prince Lotor- (Eyes are rollin in all different directions) Lamora, I'll talk to her, but I can't seem to get up without fallin on all fours.

Lamora- (Has arms crossed & is just shaking her head) Damn, u are so wasted. What did that blunt or whatever u call it do to u? I can't believe I am seein this shit. (Laughs) I'll tell Merla that u will call her back.

Prince Lotor- Fine.

Lamora is in Prince Lotor's Battleship talkin to Queen Merla.

Lamora- (Shakes head) Merla, I'm sorry he couldn't get back here to talk to u, but he will definitely try u at another time.

Queen Merla- Is he alright? I haven't heard from him since he left the galaxy.

Lamora- Oh, he's doin just fine Merla. We've made some new friends here on Planet Earth. We crash landed into the back yard of this castle, but turns out that it's this huge home of this celebrity known as Snoop Dogg.

Queen Merla- I've never heard of the name Snoop Dogg before. Planet Earth must be really ahead of our galaxy. I've always heard the Voltron force speak about how things are on their Home Planet Earth.

Lamora- Right now, our pretty boy Prince is drunk off his ass & also a term that Earthlings use to describe the effect of smokin this weed stuff have called, "high."

Queen Merla- So he's been doin his usual, but tryin a lot of new things. I'd hope he sober up. (Pauses) No Lamora!

Lamora- What's wrong?

Queen Merla- I want his butt to get back home!

(Prince Lotor walks into ship)

Prince Lotor- Hooommme!! I'm already home Merrrlaaaa.

Queen Merla- Lotor, what is wrong with u. U look like u'r drugged up. Have u forgotten already where u came from?

Prince Lotor- Merla, are u trippin?! I'm havin a good time here on Planet Earth & I miss u baby. U better bring u'r ass on over here to give some sugar.

Queen Merla- What? Lotor. I know u haven't been conquerin planets & things u use to do on Planet Doom, but u better be behaving yourself.

Prince Lotor- Baby, pleaz come visit me.

Lamora- Lotor, let me take over. Go to sleep in your chambers for a while.

(Prince Lotor drags himself to his chambers & falls down on his bed)

Lamora- (Smiles at Queen Merla & laughs) I told ya! I know u don't care to see him this way, but to tell u the truth, it's pretty gosh darn hilarious seein him this way. He seems like he's so alive & full of joy now that he's away from the pains of Denubia.

Queen Merla- U'r right Lamora. Now that I think about it, I just want Lotor to be happy. Does he ever plan on coming back?

Lamora- Don't know, but u should come to Earth & visit us Merla.

Queen Merla- I shall make it over there when I can, but right now have to make sure exiting Denubia will be a safe journey for me. Things have been gettin pretty ugly over here.

Lamora- Oh no! What all has happened?

Queen Merla- King Zarkon has hired his nephew, Jarius to replace Lotor. He's even made him the new Crown Prince of Doom & his successor to the throne. This man is the most evilst, ruthless tyrant known to the galaxy. He's very dangerous.

Lamora- What has he done? (Looks down with sadness) Things don't sound too good for u over there.

Queen Merla- He's invaded & caused a remendous amount of destruction on Planet Pollux. While there, he took many of it's people as slaves, along with Prince Bandor & Princess Romelle to Planet Doom. Jarius almost forced Princess Romelle to marry him, but the Voltron Force didn't let that happen.

Lamora- What did they do?

Queen Merla- I sent them over there disguised as Doomites & they successfully snuck the both of them off the Planet onto my Doom-like ship & made it off safely. The only thing is that they didn't have time to rescue slaves. It was impossible with Cossack standing on guard.

Lamora- I feel bad for the slaves.

On Planet Doom, Prince Jarius is trippin off his ass after he discovered that Princess Romelle escaped.

Prince Jarius- What do u mean she left old witch?

Haggar- One of the Castle employees had came in my laboratory to inform me that Zarkon wanted to see me. Come to find out, he didn't & I came back & she was gone.

Prince Jarius- This can't happen to me & I told her never to leave u'r sight. The bitch disobeys me like that. Wait till I find & bring her butt back here. I'll make her pay.

Prince Jarius walks down the hall toward the entrance & runs into Cossack.

Cossack- Hey sire? I thought u & Princess Romelle went to Tyrus for a honeymoon.

Prince Jarius- (Looks over furiously) I never said anything about a honeymoon yet. Plus my wedding hadn't taken place yet. Haggar discovered that Princess Romelle was gone from her laboratory, but how?

Cossack- What? That can't be. Uhh. I just saw them leave out of here on a ship with Doomites claiming to have taken them to Tyrus?

Prince Jarius- (Gets out his arrow & points it at Cossack's neck) Why did u let them leave u incompetent nincumpoop?

Cossack- I didn't know. They had a very convincing story.

Prince Jarius- I'll let this go Commander, but from now on, the next time something like this happen, u are not to let anybody, except for Haggar, Zarkon, or I to leave unless they have our permission.

Cossack- Thank u Sire.

Back in the Castle Of Lions, Queen Merla is making her way back up into the Control Room. Her vulture notices Haggar's Cat Coba lurkin around.

Vulture- Queen Merla, I see a familiar lookin feline.

Queen Merla- (Looks over) I just seen it runnin away, but it's not goin anywhere. I'll somehow use my telepathic powers to draw it back over here even if I have to lie.
(Uses telepathic powers) Coba, listen to me. U come back over here & I shall bring u in the Castle, so u could spy on the Voltron Force. After all, I don't know what came over me turnin good. It was a mistake.

Coba- (Runs over to Merla & meows fearlessly)

Queen Merla- Good kitty. Now I shall carry u in.

Merla enters the Castle.

Castle Guard- Hey, what r' u doin bringin Haggar's cat in the Castle.

Queen Merla- I need to see him for a second, so he could perform work for Zarkon. (She speaks telepathically to the guards) Guards, I'm doin this to play a trick on Haggar.

Castle Guard- U shall then enter with the cat.

Voltron Force sees her carrying Coba.

Keith- Hey, what u doin with Haggar's cat.

Queen Merla- (Telepathically) Keith, I'm speakin to u telepathically. I've decided to steal Haggar's cat & keep it locked in a cage somewhere to weaken her powers.

Keith- (Laughs) Good idea Queen Merla. I think we have just the place to keep him.

(Keith & Queen Merla attempt putting Coba into a cell while he is scratchin & meowing)

Queen Merla- I think we have him in here Keith, but we can't let him run away while we try to shut the door.

Keith- Here, let me see him.

Keith takes the cat & throws him in the cell & quickly shuts the door)

Queen Merla- Well done Keith.

Keith-Now what kind of plan will Haggar have to come up with to rescue her beloved feline.

Queen Merla- I know one thing. I'd just luv to see Haggar's reaction when she notices Coby hadn't made it home yet.

Keith- Let's just hope the old witch doesn't try anything on us as a way of retaliation. (Pauses & finally make it to the observation room where the others are at) So, did u get any messages from the former Crown Prince of Doom.

Queen Merla- No messages, but I did speak to Lamora, then Lotor for a brief second.

Lance- I guess Planet Earth is keepin him pretty occupied over there to where he's found better to do than bother us.

Queen Merla- Oh yes. They sure have. (Smiles) He crash landed onto Planet Earth landing in the backyard of someone's mansion in a place called Los Angelas, CA. Since u guys are from Planet Earth, maybe u can help me shed light on what he may be doin.

Pidge- Oh yes, we can tell u anything u need to know u'r majesty.

Queen Merla- Lamora told me that their ship landed in the backyard of a rich & famous person's mansion. They've been campin out in Lotor's battleship, but have been hittin it off well with the people.

Hunk- I wonder who's backyard he's in.

Queen Merla- It was some rapper & by the way what's a rapper. His name is Snoop Dogg & from what Lamora has told me, Snoop & Lotor have became quite close.

Keith- U mean Rapper; Snoop Dogg has buddied up with Lotor?

Lance- Now I can see the resemblances between the two, but what worries me is that Snoop is good & Lotor is evil.

Pidge- He better not try anything on him or he'll answer to us.

Queen Merla- From what I've understood, Lamora says that Lotor hasn't caused Snoop & his family any problems. In fact, it seems like he's fading away from his evil ways.

Keith- How could he possibly? He could be just playin a trick on Snoop. Oh no. How can a cool person like Snoop Dogg befriend an evil tyrant like Lotor. We somehow better try to contact Snoop so we can warn him not to trust Lotor & how he never keeps his promises.

Queen Merla- Keith, I understand u have had many bones to pick with Lotor, but from what Lamora says he's not caused any problems & was very generous to Snoop when he passed out after noticing Lotor. Lamora said she had never seen Lotor show a bit of compassion to anybody unless it was Princess Allura.

Princess Allura- (Eyes tremble) So he's decided to turn from his evil ways. It's about time he began actin like a prince. He sure made a wise decision by leaving Planet Doom.

Queen Merla- Yeah, I'm proud of him for leaving all that chaos on Doom. It was destroyin his heart & damaging the soul he's had. If Lotor didn't have to grow up the way he did, I honestly believe he wouldn't have turned out the way he did. He's ruthless, but he has some heart & love inside him.

Princess Allura- Out of all the times I've encountered him when he's pursued me, I've always wondered about Lotor's past.

Queen Merla- I think that's one of his quests he's out to take. In fact, Lotor's been makin new discoveries on Planet Earth.

Lance- I wonder what that may be. (Smirks)

Queen Merla- Do u guys know what weed is & gettin high?

Lance- (Laughs) Oh shit. He must be really gettin tore up over there on Planet Earth.

Queen Merla- He sure looked like he was doped up when I seen him on the comm control for a minute. That's why he could only talk for a second. His eyes were black as soot & he stumbled all over the place.

The Voltron Force laugh uncontrollably

Hunk- Man, I wish I had been out there with u to see that.

Lance- Sounds like Prince Lotor was high as a kite.

Pidge- When u mentioned Snoop Dogg, I began wonderin what kind of experimenting Lotor would engage in.

Princess Romelle- Man, I don't know Snoop Dogg, but from all the time I spent with Lotor when he had me captured, all he indulged himself in was wine & women.

Lance- I had a feeling that once u mentioned Snoop Dogg, I knew the next thing Lotor would is try some bud. (Laughs)

Keith- Oh well whatever he's doin, he's given us some peace & quiet. In the mean time, we should worry about Lotor for Snoop's sake.

Conversation in Castle of Lions Continued.

Prince Bandor- I wonder if we should warn this guy, Snoop Dogg about Lotor, cuz I wouldn't want anything to happen to him.

Keith- For right now, Lotor hasn't posed any kind of threat. We have a bigger situation on our hands with his cousin.

Prince Bandor- U got that right. I seen enuff of him in action when I was on Planet Doom.

Princess Romelle- I learned enough about how cruel of a monster he is by the way he beat me up & got his pleasure by tormenting innocent people. Prince Jarius is much more evil than Prince

Lotor. During the time I was in Lotor's captivity, the only time he put his hands on me was when he needed me for his sexual pleasures. From what I'm noticing out of the whole thing with the both of them, Jarius's action seemed more intentional than Lotor's. It seemed like Lotor only did the awful things he did, because he probably was acting on orders.

Queen Merla- There are many differences between Lotor & his cousin Jarius. Jarius is as cruel-minded & ruthless as they come. He has no soul, heart, & remorse. Jarius is much more worse than his Uncle King Zarkon. Jarius is the way he is, because he's making the choice without conforming to orders. Prince Lotor on the other hand is completely redeemable & I have faith that he'll officially renounce his evil ways.

Pidge- Merla, u seem to know a lot about people in the Drule Empire. It's great that u were once one of them & now came to our side.

Queen Merla- Why was I evil was a question, but I guess it had to be done in order to achieve the mission God sent me here for.

Princess Allura- Have u ever known Prince Lotor's mother?

Queen Merla- No, but I'm gonna do some research on it for Lotor. Lotor has often spoke about what his Mother was like. She was a beautiful, phenomenal, and caring kind of person. He said that his mother showed him what love & compassion was when she gave him the love & nurturing as an infant & little boy. Then one day all that had changed when Lotor went to his Mother's room looking for her & found her gone.

Princess Allura- If she loved him so much, why would she want to leave Lotor with his Father.

Queen Merla- Well, when Lotor found that his Mother was gone, he wept & cried for many years. Haggard & King Zarkon informed him that she just uped & left.

Keith- The story sounds fishy. Lotor needs to look into that.

Queen Merla- Well, he plans to do that, but mainly with my guidance & assistance, because I've always wondered as a child as to whatever happened to the Queen Of Doom. While Lotor's on his mission to find his life's purpose, mine will be to solve the Queen Of Doom's disappearance.

Lance- Sounds interesting.

Sven- U'll definitely have to keep us posted on u'r findings.

The End of Part Six
